THE OPERATIONS OF LAST WEEK.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE N. Y. TIMES.

WASHINGTON, Sunday, Nov. 29.

E. A. PAUL sends the following:

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, ROBERTSON'S TAVERN,
Saturday, Nov. 28.

This army was in motion all day yesterday.

The enemy's advance was met at an early hour in the morning, and gradually fell back, skirmishing heavily until the centre of our line occupies, this morning, a point one and a half miles south of this point, which is seven miles from Germanna Ford.

GREGG's cavalry on the left, the Second corps in the centre and the Third corps on the right, had some pretty heavy artillery practice and skirmishing to secure a proper line for more active offensive operations.

The loss in killed and wounded in the Second corps is about seventy; in GREGG's cavalry division, thirty will probably cover the loss.

The work yesterday was only preliminary for to-day, if the enemy mean fight.

It can certainly do no harm now to recapitulate the movements of this army for the last forty-eight hours, which place it in position ready for any emergency.

The army was under orders to march last Tuesday morning, but an unfortunate rain-storm setting in the night before, rendering the roads next to impassable, caused a postponement of the day for marching. Tuesday the storm ceased, and on Wednesday a stiff breeze and an unclouded sun, aided materially in drying the roads. Thursday morning, orders having beed issued the night before, the whole army was in motion. The First and Fifth corps moved to Culpepper Ford, a short distance below Germanna Mill; the Second corps to Germania Ford followed by the Sixth corps as a support. The Third corps went to Jacobs' Mills Ford, two and a half miles above Germania. KILPATRICK's cavalry, now under CUSTER, protected the upper fords, to watch any attempt to make a flank movement or attack our rear. GREGG's cavalry division moved on the left flank, BUFORD on the right.

From the unusual amount of preparation the enemy had made, by throwing up earthworks and digging rifle-pits at the principal points of crossing, a strong resistance to the passage of the Rapidan was expected. In this we all were disappointed. The enemy's pickets fell back almost without firing a gun.

The river was reached early in the day Thursday. Finding that the enemy had evacuated the places, the troops commenced crossing at once.

All Thursday night troops, wagon trains and artillery were crossing the river. A sufficent force was thrown forward, Thursday afternoon, on the Germania plank-road, to cover the front.

Friday morning the Fifth and First corps moved from near the river up the plank-road, GREGG's cavalry taking the advance, driving the enemy's cavalry back, and skirmishing to Oak Woods.

At this point, and one mile beyond, the enemy made considerable resistance both sides, having out strong skirmish lines. Charge upon charge was made on both sides by the skirmish line. The enemy were invariably repulsed, and finally suddenly introduced a line of infantry skirmishers to repel a charge.

We followed it up promptly by a counter movement with infantry. For a few moments they forced our line back, but were finally repulsed by a vigorous fire opened upon them from the Sixth New-York Independent battery, Capt. MARTIN. The First brigade of GREGG's cavalry division, under command of Col. TAYLOR, did the heaviest part of this work. This brigade is composed of the following named regiments:

Third Pennsylvannia cavalry.
First Pennsylvania cavalry.
First New-Jersey cavalry.
First Massachusetts cavalry.
First Rhode Island cavalry.

At Oak Wood Companies K and L, Capts. WIGET and WALSH, Third Pennsylvania cavalry, had the advanced and behaved in the most gallant manner.

Our left, last night, was two miles south of Hope Meeting House, or Oak Wood, twelve miles from Germania, on the plank road, leading from Fredericksburgh to Orange Court-house.

Just as the rebel infantry was so unexpectedly called upon to repel a charge of the skirmish line, as above recorded, the advance of the Fifth corps came into position very opportunely.

Throwing out a strong skirmish line the enemy opened with a heavy fire of artillery upon it, which was responded to in a similar manner from our side, and for an hour quite a brisk cannonading was kept up on both sides. In one of the charges by the cavalry twenty-four prisoners were taken.

As the train of the Fifth corps was turning from the brook pike into the plank road, a fire was suddenly opened upon it from a concealed foe, when one man and several mules were killed.

The enemy were speedily dispersed by a detachment sent out from the Fifth corps for the purpose.

Having crossed Germanna Ford, the Second corps yesterday took the first road to the right, the Orange Court-house Pike.

But little distance had been made, before the enemy's pickets were encountered, and a lively skirmish was kept up to beyond Robertson's Tavern. Here the enemy brought forward their infantry, and for two hours there was heavy skirmishing and considerable artillery practice, until it was quite dark.

Next on the right of the Second corps is the Third corps, and then again the Sixth corps.

The Third also had considerable skirmishing in front.

At one time last night a general engagement seemed imminent. The reason it did not come off in fact was doubtless because neither side was ready.

We may have it to-day.

Gen. CUSTER, in command of KILPATRICK's cavalry division, was so anxious to mix in the fight that seemed to be impending, that he made a dash across Raccoon Ford with the Michigan brigade and PENNINGTON's battery, and commenced work in real earnest. As the position he was in might become a critical one, and as his movement would somewht interfere with other arrangements on foot, he was directed to recross the river.

This morning finds our whole army in position and ready for work. Everybody seems to be in good spirits. May that be a harbinger of a decided victory!

The country hereabouts is one of the worst conceivable for field operations. It is truly named the "Wilderness," for a wilderness of small growth wood covers nine-tenths of the whole surface of the country. So dense are these young forests, that it is impossible to penetrate them, except where paths are cut out.

This enabled the enemy yesterday to hover on our flanks, often within sight of a moving column, almost with impunity. It was not until late in the evening that our line in front was so connected as to keep straggling parties of cavalry outside of our lines. During the day, it was impossible for any small parties to pass between the two parallel columns of troops without running the risk of being captured or shot.

At about 2 o'clock P. M., Lieut. GIFFORD, Post Adjutant at Headquarters, accompanied by six other persons, attempted to cross from GREGG's command on the left to Headquarters, six miles directly across on the road where the Second corps had moved up. When about half way across, the party ran into a superior force of the enemy, who fired a volley at the party, and then started in pursuit. A breakneck race for about two miles was the next thing on the programme. Quite a number of shots were fired at the fleeing party, but fortunately no one was wounded, though a number of shots came uncomfortably near. In the race, two of the party were unhorsed, and four lost their hats, very glad to escape so easily.

Several other small parties were fired upon in different directions while attempting to pass from one column to another.

Through some mistake the Third corps did not get into position as soon as was expected, which gave the enemy temporarily some advantage.

The Third, however, promptly met the emergency, and succeeded in capturing between seven and nine hundred of the enemy.

Some three hundred prisoners were taken at other parts of the line.

SATURDAY MORNING, Nov. 28—10 o'clock.

The enemy have apparently fallen back.

There has been some skirmishing, but no cannonading, this morning.

ANOTHER DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sunday, Nov. 29.

The railroad between the Rapidan and the Rappahannock is being destroyed by our forces, and the iron sent to Alexandria. Up to this morning the rails were removed to within half a mile south of Rappahannock Station.

DISPATCHES TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, Sunday, Nov. 29.

The Army of the Potomac advanced at six o'clock on the morning of the 27th from near Germanna, Culpepper and Jacob's Fords, and formed in line of battle, the center resting on the Fredericksburgh turnpike, near Robertson's tavern.

The left advanced along the plank road, forming a curve toward Gordonsville, and the rest terminating near the Rapidan, southwest of Jacob's Ford. As the centre advanced, it came upon the enemy's pickets and skirmish line. Subsequently the enemy's line was strengthened by the arrival of reinforcements from EWELL's corbs on the Rapidan front.

About 1 o'clock a slow and irregular cannonading commenced on the road leading toward Orange Court-house, and a considerable firing between the skirmishers. The enemy did not reply with artillery.

At 4 o'clock it was announced that HILL's corps, which had previously rested on the Rapidan, west of the railroad, was approaching on the centre, and half an hour later heavy musketry was heard on our right, showing that the Third corps, forming that wing, was engaging the enemy.

Up to 6 o'clock on the evening of Friday, our casualties were few in the centre, the only officer of rank at that time known to be killed is Lieut.-Col. HESSER, of the Seventy-second Pennsylvania regiment.

The battle-ground is in the wilderness, with but little open country, consequently an accurate description of the position cannot be given, but it will be perceived we have the enemy's fortified position on the heights skirting the Rapidan on their right, and can compel them to give battle, if they intend to fight upon ground less unfavorable to us.

JEFF. DAVIS, owing to the unfavorable weather of Wednesday, did not review the rebel army, as he intended, and he is said, by prisoners, to have returned to Richmond on Thursday.

Gen. GREGG's cavalry and batteries had a severe fight with the enemy's right wing of cavalry Thursday afternoon. We drove them back upon their infantry lines, when we were compelled to fall back. His loss is said to be about 250 in killed and wounded.

The Fifth corps coming up, the enemy was in turn compelled to retreat.

About sixty were wounded in the Second corps, five killed, and seven mortally wounded.

On the right, Gen. FRENCH, with the Third corps, when advancing, encountered EWELL's corps before he connected with the centre, and after a severe fight he held his position, but lost heavily. He, however, captured 900 rebels. The Sixth corps was then thrown forward and filled the gap between the centre and right.

A train of the Fifth corps, advancing on the plank-road, was attacked on the flank by the rebel cavalry, who destroyed fifteen or twenty wagons, killed two men and several mules.

On Friday morning it was found that the rebels had fallen back from our centre to two miles nearer Orange Court, and the above intelligence is up to evening of Friday, and was brought to Washington by a special messenger, who came near being captured by guerrillas. The additional information which has also come to hand to-night, through another source, states that the line was formed on Friday about noon, on the roads leading to Orange Court.

Gen. GREGG's cavalry, on the left hand had a severe fight with the rebel cavalry and drove them back upon their infantry, and then fell back himself upon the Fifth corps, who in turn drove the rebel infantry back and took position as the left wing.

WARREN's Second corps, on the turnpike, drove the rebel skrimishers beyond Robertson's Tavern, and formed the centre.

On the right Gen. PRINCE's division, consisting of part of the Third corps, met a heavy body of EWELL's corps and fought them several hours until the remainder of the corps came up, and later the Sixth corps.

The Third particularly (Gen. PRINCE's) lost heavily, which is estimated at 500 killed and wounded, and many prisoners, but severely punished the enemy in killed and wounded, and [illegible] Gen. FRENCH reports) 900 prisoners. Our forces on the centre had no severe fighting, and consequently our loss there was small, excepting in Gen. GREGG's cavalry division.

On Saturday morning it was discovered that the enemy's centre had fallen back. Their skirmish line are in the woods some mile and a half nearer Orange Court-House. The heavy rain, it was thought, would hinder any heavy offensive operations.

On Saturday it was reported that Gen. KILPATRICK's cavalry division, under Gen. CUSTER, attempted to cross under the batteries, at Raccoon Ford, on Friday, but was driven back. Heavy guns were heard there all the afternoon, tending to confirm the truth of the report. The enemy used no artillery on our front on Friday, and we but very little, owing to the densely wooded and nearly level character of the ground. It is known that there was very heavy skirmishing on the turnpike at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, but no particulars have been received.

The War in the Southwest.

CAIRO, Sunday, Nov. 29.

Frauds upon the Revenue Department to a large amount have been recently discovered at this post, and several of the parties implicated have been arrested, among whom is Maj. DEVASSE, the chief clerk of one of the principal shipping houses here, and a leading operator of the gang of smugglers. It is supposed that one of the guilty parties left here last Sunday, and has not been heard from since. The loss to the Government is already reported to be $200,000.

Rumors at Paducah state that Gen. RADDY, with 4,000 to 6,000 rebels, made his appearance recently on the Tennessee River, below Eastport.

There was great excitement at Columbus, Ky., yesterday, owing to Gen. SMITH enforcing Gen. HURLBURT's conscription order. There has been a large number of arrests for military purposes.

The steamer Nellie Moore, bound for Nashville with Government stores, sank on Friday in the Ohio River, just below Smithland.

THE SITUATION VERY SATISFACTORY.

Graphic Accounts of the Three Days' Fighting.

The Best Directed and Best Ordered Battle of the War.

GLORIOUS CONDUCT OF OUR TROOPS.

Our Entire Loss Officially Reported at about Three Thousand.

OUR SPECIAL WASHINGTON DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, Saturday, Nov. 28.

An official statement of our losses in the recent battles at Chattanooga was received here this morning. Our casualties in killed and wounded on the 23d, 24th and 25th, were but little over three thousand at the storming of Lookout Mountain, and at the assault upon Missionary Ridge about two hundred.

The report of our losses on the 26th is not yet received.

Our wounded are all under cover and well cared for. Hospital and all other supplies are abundant.

FROM CHATTANOOGA.

CHATTANOOGA, Saturday, Nov. 28.

There has been no fighting at the front to-day. The enemy are concentrated below and near Dalton with a view of making a stand.

Our line is beyond Ringgold.

An order from BRAGG recalled Gen. LONGSTREET from below Knoxville on the morning of the 26th. He is now endeavoring to join that chieftain near Dalton by a circuitous route.

The situation from Knoxville to Bridgeport is all that can be desired.

DETAILED OFFICIAL DISPATCH.

HEADQUARTERS, CHATTANOOGA, Nov. 26, 1863.

Edwin M. Stanton, Secretary of War:

SIR: On the 23d instant, at 11½ A. M., Gen. GRANT ordered a demonstration against Mission Ridge, to develop the force holding it. The troops marched out, formed in order, and advanced in line of battle, as if on parade.

The rebels watched the formation and movement from their picket lines and rifle-pits, and from the summits of Mission Ridge, five hundred feet above us, and thought it was a review and drill, so openly and deliberately, so regular, was it all done.

The line advanced, preceded by skirmishers, and at 2 o'clock P.M. reached our picket lines and opened a rattling volley upon the rebel pickets, who replied and run into their advanced line of rifle-pits. After them went our skirmishers and into them, along the centre of the line of 25,000 troops which Gen. THOMAS had so quickly displayed, until we opened fire.

Prisoners assert that they thought the whole movement was a review and general drill, and that it was too late to send to their camps for reinforcements, and that they were overwhelmed by force of numbers. It was a surprise in open daylight.

At 3 P. M., the important advanced position of Orchard Knob and the lines right and left were in our possession, and arrangements were ordered for holding them during the night. The next day, at daylight, Gen. THOMAS had 5,000 men across the Tennessee, and established on its south bank, and commenced the construction of a pontoon bridge about six miles above Chattanooga.

The rebel steamer Dunbar was repaired at the right moment, and rendered effective aid in this crossing, carrying over six thousand men. By night-fall, Gen. THOMAS had seized the extremity of Missionary Ridge nearest the river, and was entrenching himself. Gen. HOWARD, with a brigade, opened communication with him from Chattanooga, on the south side of the river. Skirmishing and cannonading continued all day on the left and centre. Gen. HOOKER scaled the slopes of Lookout Mountain, and from the valley of Lookout Creek drove the rebels around the point. He captured some two thousand prisoners, and established himself high up the mountain side, in full view of Chattanooga. This raised the blockade, and now steamers were ordered from Bridgeport to Chattanooga. They had run only to Kelly's Ferry, whence ten miles of hauling over mountain roads and twice across the Tennessee on pontoon bridges brought us our supplies.

All night the point of Missionary Ridge on the extreme left and the side of Lookout Mountain, on the extreme right, blazed with the camp-fires of loyal troops.

The day had been one of dense mists and rains, and much of Gen. HOOKER's battle was fought above the clouds, which concealed him from our view, but from which his musketry was heard.

At nightfall the sky cleared and the full moon, "the traitors doom," shone upon the beautiful scene, until 1 A. M., when twinkling sparks upon the mountain side showed that picket skirmishing was going on. Then it ceased. A brigade, sent from Chattanooga, crossed the Chattanooga Creek and opened communication with HOOKER.

Gen. GRANT's headquarters during the afternoon of the 23d and the day of the 24th, were in WOOD's redoubt, except when, in the course of the day, he rode along the advanced line, visiting the headquarters of the several commanders, in Chattanooga Valley.

At daylight on the 25th the Stars and Stripes were descried on the peak of Lookout. The rebels had evacuated the mountain.

HOOKER moved to descend the mountain, and striking Mission Ridge at the Rossville Gap, to sweep on both sides and on its summit.

The rebel troops were seen as soon as it was light enough, streaming regiments and brigades along the narrow summit of Mission Ridge, either concentrating on the right to overwhelm SHERMAN, or marching for the railroad, and raising the siege.

They had evacuated the valley of Chattanooga—would they abandon that of Chicamauga?

The twenty-pounders and four and a quarter-inch rifles of WOOD's redoubt, opened on Mission Ridge. Orchard Knob sent its compliments to the Ridge, which, with rifled Parrotts answered, and the cannonade thus commenced continued all day. Shot and shell screamed from Orchard Knob to Missionary Ridge, and from Missionary Ridge to Orchard Knob, and from WOOD's redoubt over the heads of Gens. GRANT and THOMAS and their Staffs, who were with us in this favorable position, from whence the whole battle could be seen as in an amphitheatre. The headquarters were under fire all day long.

Cannonading and musketry were heard from Gen. SHERMAN, and Gen. HOWARD marched the Eleventh corps to join him.

Gen. THOMAS sent out skirmishers who drove in the rebel pickets, and chased them into their intrenchments, and at the foot of Mission Ridge SHERMAN made an assault against BRAGG's right, intrenched on a high knob next to that, on which SHERMAN himself lay fortified. The assault was gallantly made.

SHERMAN reached the edge of the crest, and held his ground for (it seemed to me) an hour, but was bloodily repulsed by reserves.

A general advance was ordered, and a strong line of skirmishers, followed by a deployed line of battle, some two miles in length. At the signal of leaden shots from the headquarters on Orchard Knob, the line moved rapidly and orderly forward. The rebel pickets discharged their muskets and ran into their rifle-pits. Our skirmishers followed on their heels.

The line of battle was not far behind, and we saw the grey rebels swarm out of the ledge line of rifle-pits, in numbers which surprised us, and over the base of the hill. A few turned and fired their pieces, but the greater number collected into the many roads which cross obliquely up its steep face, and went on to their top. Some regiments pressed on and swarmed up the steep sides of the ridge, and here and there a color was advanced beyond the lines. The attempt appeared most dangerous, but the advance was supported, and the whole line was ordered to storm the heights, upon which not less than forty pieces of artillery, and no one knew how many muskets, stood ready to slaughter the assailants. With cheers answering to cheers, the men swarmed upwards. They gathered to the points least difficult of ascent, and the line was broken. Color after color was planted on the summit, while musket and cannon vomited their thunder upon them.

A well-directed shot from Orchard Knob exploded a rebel caisson on the summit, and the gun was seen galloping to the right, its driver lashing his horses. A party of our soldiers intercepted them, and the gun was captured with cheers.

A fierce musketry fight broke out to the left, where, between THOMAS and SHERMAN, a mile or two of the ridge was still occupied by the rebels.

BRAGG left the house in which he had held his headquarters, and rode to the rear as our troops crowded the hill on either side of him.

Gen. GRANT proceeded to the summit, and then did we only know its height.

Some of the captured artillery was put into position. Artillerists were sent for to work the guns. Caissons were searched for ammunition.

The rebel log breastworks were torn to pieces and carried to the other side of the ridge, and used in forming barricades across.

A strong line of infantry was formed in the rear of BAIRD's line, hotly engaged in a musketry contest with the rebels to the left, and a secure lodgement was soon effected.

The other assault to the right of our centre gained the summit, and the rebels threw down their arms and fled.

HOOKER coming in favorable position, swept the right of the ridge and captured many prisoners.

BRAGG's remaining troops left early in the night, and the battle of Chattanooga, after days of manœuvring and fighting, was won. The strength of the rebellion in the centre is broken. BURNSIDE is relieved from danger in East Tennessee. Kentucky and Tennessee are rescued. Georgia and the southeast are threatened in the rear, and another victory is added to the chapter of "Unconditional Surrender GRANT."

To-night the estimate of captures is several thousands of prisoners and thirty pieces of artillery.

Our loss for so great a victory is not severe.

BRAGG is firing the railroad as he retreats towards Dalton. SHERMAN is in hot pursuit.

To-day I viewed the battle-field, which extends for six miles along Mission Ridge and for several miles on Lookout Mountain.

Probably not so well directed, so well ordered a battle has been delivered during the war. But one assault was repulsed—but that assault by calling to that point the rebel reserves, prevented them repulsing any of the others.

A few days since BRAGG sent to Gen. GRANT a flag of truce, advising him that it would be prudent to remove non-combatants who might be still in Chattanooga.

No reply has been returned, but the combatants having removed from this vicinity, it is probable that non-combatants can remain without imprudence.

M. C. MEIGS, Quartermaster-General.

LATER FROM KNOXVILLE.

PART OF THE CITY DESTROYED.

General Burnside Confident and Cheerful.

Th Raid in East Tennessee—Col. Lang Mortally Wounded—Heavy Rains.

NASHVILLE, Saturday, Nov. 28.

Capt. COX and the mate and clerk of the steamer Duke were arrested to-night, and will be tried by the Military Commissioners, charged with crosing the rebel Colonel HAWKINS and thirty men from the north to the south side of the Cumberland River, near Fort Donelson.

Col. LANG, who was severely wounded during the late fight, will not recover.

Col. LANG encountered a portion of WHEELER's cavalry at Cleveland, yesterday, and after a severe fight the rebels were completely routed. The loss on either side is not stated.

A heavy rain fell last night. The Cumberland is rising rapidly—the water on the shoals is nine feet deep.

ESCAPE OF REBEL GEN. MORGAN.

He is Assisted by Copperheads—One Thousand Dollars Reward, Dead or Alive.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sunday, Nov. 29.

The rebel General, JOHN H. MORGAN, and Capts. HINES, BENNETT, TAYLOR, SHELDON, HOCKERSMITH and MAGEE escaped from the Penitentiary at this place yesterday morning, by aid of Copperhead friends from outside and by bribing the guard.

One thousand dollars reward is offered for MORGAN, dead or alive. Up to this hour, (8 P. M.,) he has not been heard of. Prominent Copperheads will be arrested to-morrow for complicity in effecting the escape.

CITY ELECTION.

The Aldermanic Candidates—Who They Are and What of Them.

Aldermen are to be elected to-morrow in the eight Aldermanic Districts bearing even numerical designations.

SECOND DISTRICT.

MORGAN JONES and WILLIAM WALSH, both Democrats. The former is nominated by Tammany, indorsed by Mozart, and by a portion of the Republicans. He is a plumber, born in and all his life a resident of the Sixth Ward; has been in the Board of Councilmen five or six years and is now President of it; is a very intelligent man, a keen politician and exceedingly popular; has a large amount of patronage and is not amenable to the charge of recklessness as a legislator; on all occasions he has refused to vote for appropriations the justice of which was justly a matter of doubt, even though he would thereby benefit personal and political friends.

WILLIAM WALSH has the McKeon nomination. He is President of the Board of Aldermen, and in that position has evinced good executive ability and much business capacity. He is a man of many excellent qualities and of large personal popularity. His official career is unimpeached. He relies on the latter for success, and should he not be elected his vote will certainly be large and complimentary, considering that his political indorsement is by an organization the origin of which is but recent. He will, however, fairly divide the Republican and Independent votes.

FOURTH DISTRICT.

GEORGE S. EARLE, of Earle's Hotel, is the Union candidate; he is a highly respected citizen and would be an intelligent and valuable member of the Board. He is well known in his District, has a good many interested in his success. But there is work—hard work to do in order to elect him.

Capt. JAMES MCMAHON has the united nomination of Mozart and Tammany, and will secure a portion of the McKeonites. He is a livery-stable keeper, is active, energetic, popular. He has been a candidate before, and was defeated by the present incumbent, CHAS. H. HALL, (Rep.,) who retires with a very honorable record.

WM. DOHERTY is the McKeon nominee, but, it is to be presumed, merely runs to make a front for the organization.

SIXTH DISTRICT.

JOSEPH SHANNON, formerly Councilman, is supported by Mozart and Tammany. His chances of success are good. He is a merchant, a man of good business capacity, and socially of the best. Although earnestly in the contest, he would accept defeat or success with equal good nature and nonchalance.

JAMES REED, present Alderman, has the McKeon nomination, and is largely indorsed by the Unionists, who name no candidate. He is a butcher, and, physically is a weighty man, a type of what Fancy pictures an Alderman to be, rotund, jolly and good-natured; is a lover of his country and staunch supporter of its Government. He has the recommendations of being no politician, and of being honest and zealous.

EIGHTH DISTRICT.

WILLIAM L. ELY, a young man of intelligence, experience and excellent character, has the Tammany and part of the McKeon nominations, and will be largely supported by the Unionists, who have made no nominations. He is Chief Clerk of the Street Department, where his responsible duties have been ably performed, and where he has gleaned valuable knowledge of City affairs and requirements.

PETER MCKNIGHT is the Mozart candidate, indorsed by part of McKeon. He is a junk dealer, a man very well known in the District, and who promises to make a very good run.

TENTH DISTRICT.

JOHN LALOR is the Union candidate, and should receive an earnest support. For many years he has been Clerk of the Essex Market Police Court; is really a good man and worthy the votes of his District. He has served two years in the war as a Captain in Col. MCLEOD MURPHY's regiment. In all respects he is an excellent candidate.

GEORGE A. JEREMIAH, Tammany and McKeon candidate; present incumbent, a capable man, unexceptionable in all respects; scrupulously honest and always acting with a view to the public interest.

JOHN N. REYNOLDS, Mozart, has been heretofore in nomination and suffered defeat. He is a livery stable keeper, and was once Councilman. The nomination is one against which no objections can be urged.

This District has done honor to itself in the character of its nominations by all parties.

TWELFTH DISTRICT.

The old Boole and Kelly fight has been revived in this District, and is being fiercely waged. BERNARD KELLY, dock builder, formerly State Senator, a man of great political strength and personal popularity, is supported by Mozart and the McKeonites.

PETER BOWE, restaurant keeper, is the Tammany candidate, indorsed by the Unionists. He is a good and loyal man who, as an officer, has seen service with the army during the present war.

The Germans have nominated G. N. HERMANN, a wealthy and popular German of first-rate character.

FOURTEENTH DISTRICT.

JOHN D. OTTIWELL, present incumbent, has all the Union nominations. He is a thoroughly loyal man, of clever and independent character; has made a careful Alderman, and of unquestioned integrity. He is Colonel of the Eighty-fourth regiment, and was for many years Captain of Co. D, Twelfth regiment; went with that corps to the war, serving faithfully during two terms of three months each.

RICHARD O'BRIEN, at present Councilman, is the Tammany candidate. He stands well with his party.

JAMES IRVING, pretty well known in this community, is the Mozart candidate—that's all.

RICHARD WILLIAMSON, JR., is the candidate of the Citizens' Association, and is indorsed by very many prominent citizens of the Eighteenth Ward.

SIXTEENTH DISTRICT.

GEORGE J. GREGORY, Union, is a clerk in the Post-office. He is a formidable candidate, a man of very great personal popularity, and most excellent character; is well fitted for the position for which he is nominated. When nominated on the Union ticket on a previous occasion, he polled a larger vote by hundreds than any Republican had ever done in the Ward. He deserves an earnest support, and an active, energetic effort in his behalf.

TERENCE FARLEY, the indefatigable and active Chairman of Committee on National Affairs, is renominated by Tammany and Mozart. Mr. FARLEY has served creditably for two terms in the Board of Aldermen, and is distinguished for great energy of character, and for devotion to the interests of the people at large, and especially to those of his District, with whom he is very and deservedly popular.

ROBERT MCGINNIS is the McKeon nominee. He is a carpenter; a man of acknowledged intelligence, ability, great energy and fine personal character. He is one of the people, around and among them, respected of and popular with them. The Democracy are having a bout in this District, and Mr. MCGINNIS will benefit by it. FARLEY has been too independent, and hence the combined efforts of the dissatisfied against him.

Councilmanic, Sixth District.

The Union men of the Sixth District, composed of the Ninth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth and Eighteenth Wards, are sanguine that they can elect. They have in nomination first-class men, to wit: DAVID R. JAQUES, GEORGE MCLEAN, WM. S. OPDYKE, JEREMIAH PANGBURN, JAMES GALWAY and WM. HEPBURN. Citizens, without regard to party, can and should support such nominations. Individual interests, as well as the interests of the city at large, would be subserved by sending such men to the City Hall, and if the right kind of work is done they can be sent.

Sixth Judicial District.

This District, embracing the Eighteenth and Twenty-first Wards, has a large Democratic majority, and the chances are that the Democracy will carry it for all their candidates, unless a concentration be made in it of the votes of those who seek a new and better order of things. For the office of Civil Judge, Mr. GEORGE C. BARRETT, of the firm of BARRETT, BRINSMADE & BARRETT, well known lawyers in Wall-street, has been placed in nomination by several of the Anti-Machine Democratic organizations, and also by the Independent Tax-payers' Association. He is indorsed by our leading lawyers of all parties, in a card published elsewhere, as one eminently fit for the position he aspires to fill. It is in itself a healthy sign when men such as DANIEL LORD, WM. M. EVARTS, JAMES W. GERARD, MURRAY HOFFMAN, RICHARD O'GORMAN, &c., &c., all unite in an effort to secure fit occupants for the Judicial Bench. Mr. ROBERT D. LIVINGSTON, one of the Tammany nominees, is a lawyer of good repute, and would, if elected, make a fair Judge. The same may be said of Ex-Judge FONDA, who is in nomination by the Citizens' Association, which is only strong, however, in one of the Wards of the District, thus giving him little chance. Mr. BOIES, the Union nominee, is little known at the Bar, and there are indications that he will not be supported by the bulk of his party. Mr. T. J. MCCAHILL, another of the Tammany nominees in this District, is unknown to legal fame in any manner entitling him to Judicial honors. It is for the citizens of the Eighteenth and Twenty-first Wards to select that candidate best fitted who appears to have most chance of an election.

Eighth District.

It will be seen by a card in our advertising columns, that ANSON WILLIS has withdrawn in the Eighth District in favor of Judge QUACKENBUSH. There are two Democratic candidates in the field, ANDREW LEARY, the McKeon nominee, being a man not likely to be bought or coaxed off, as he runs to rebuke and defeat what he considers the corrupt and discreditable practices of his own party. Judge QUACKENBUSH has proved his fitness for this place by faithful, upright and effective service in it; we trust he will be reelected.

PROBABLE MURDER.—On Saturday evening, about 6 o'clock, a man named MICHAEL RYAN, employed in putting down waterpipes in Newark-avenue, near Sixth-street, Jersey City, in a state of intoxication, drew a knife and attacked a fellow-laborer. The man succeeded in making his escape, when RYAN attacked a lad eleven years of age, named JAMES FALLEN, and stabbed him in the arm. A number of citizens attempted to arrest RYAN, when he made a furious assault upon them and they were forced to run away. The assailant then proceeded to his residence, corner of Newark-avenue and Sixth-street, where he was subsequently arrested by Officers MCDONOUGH and NUGENT, and committed to the City Prison. The injured boy was conveyed to the home of his parents, but up to last evening the physicians were unable to stop the flow of blood, and it was thought he could not recover. The authorities declined to accept bail.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

A Domestic Tragedy in Grand-street.

A HUSBAND SHOOTS HIS WIFE THREE TIMES—AFTERWARD SURRENDERS HIMSELF.

About 7½ o'clock yesterday morning a tragical affair occurred at No. 380 Grand-street, in this City, which, from all accounts, is of more than ordinary importance. The facts of the case, so far as we have been enabled to learn them, are as follows: Mr. TIMOTHY MCEVOY, of the firm of MCEVOY & BROTHERS, merchants, doing business as clothiers at No. 380 Grand-street, for some cause best known to himself, determined to murder his wife. With this view he obtained a six-barreled revolver, and while alone with his wife in the parlor, at the time above-named, he drew the weapon and fired three shots. One ball passed through her left arm, another struck her cheek, near her right eye, causing the blood to flow very freely. The eye is, however, believed to be uninjured. The third shot missed its aim, the bullet lodging in the wall. Mrs. MCEVOY, whose Christian name is MARY, fell to the floor as soon as the shots were fired, and her husband, believing that he had killed her, started forthwith for the Tombs Police Court. When he entered the latter place he very excitedly exclaimed: "Capt. DOWLING;" meaning the Judge, "I am your prisoner, I have murdered my wife, and I wish to be committed to the Tombs." Judge DOWLING being temporarily absent from the bench, his clerk, Mr. MCGRATH, questioned MCEVOY as to the crime to which he pleaded guilty, but beyond the admission above stated he seemed disposed to preserve a strict silence.

Justice DOWLING committed him to the Tombs to await the result. The rumors in regard to the cause of the attempt of MCEVOY to take the life of his wife, are very numerous, and among others are those of domestic unhappiness, mental aberration, jealousy, &c. The pistol with which the murderous assault was made has not been found. The deposition of the injured woman will be taken to-day, when some new light will, perhaps, be thrown upon the case. She has been taken to the residence of her mother, in Madison-street. From all accounts, the family are in independent circumstances, and have hitherto been highly regarded among all their acquaintances.

ANOTHER UNSUCCESSFUL ATTEMPT TO LAUNCH THE DICTATOR.—Yesterday, as was intimated to the party who were disappointed the day previous in not seeing the Dictator go into the water, another unsuccessful attempt was made to launch the vessel. About 11 o'clock a large number of persons assembled at the Delamater Iron Works, foot of Thirteenth-street, and a few moments after that hour eight powerful tugs, assisted by the large Norwich freight-boat City of New-London, began to attach their hawsers to the Dictator. The combined strength of all the steamers was not sufficient to move the vessel but two feet and a half, when she stuck. After making several efforts, all of which proved unavailing, the tugs withdrew, leaving the Dictator still unlaunched. Another attempt will be made to launch the vessel this morning.

CHILDREN ROBBED OF THEIR CLOTHING.—Mr. P. D. KILLDOFF, of No. 1,160 Broadway, yesterday made complaint at the Tombs Police Court, of an outrage which was perpetrated on his two little girls, during the latter part of the past week. It seems that the children were returning from school, when a woman enticed them into an alley-way running out of Forty-fourth-street, and stripped them of almost all their clothing. The impudent thief made her escape, and has not yet been arrested, although several policemen have been in pursuit of her. This mode of robbing children of their clothing has, it is said, been extensively followed in the upper Wards of the City.

Sale of Goods Upon Secret Trust Not Operative to Defeat the Rights of Creditors.

SUPERIOR COURT—TRIAL TERM.

Before Justice Robertson.

J. H. Cain vs. James Lynch.—In July, 1862, the defendant, as Sheriff, acting under executions against Danforth Baldwin, in favor of Mellen, Banks & Wilcox, and Hall & Ryan, levied upon and sold the contents of the furniture store No. 195 Chatham-street—the plaintiff sued the Sheriff, claiming to have purchased the store in October, 1861, of Baldwin, for the sum of $1,777, being 60 per cent. of the original cost of the goods.

The plaintiff and Baldwin were brothers-in-law, and at the time of the sale Baldwin was indebted to him to the amount of $400, which was deducted from the purchase money, and the balance was secured by the notes of the plaintiff, one of which had twelve months to run. A few days after the sale Baldwin made a general assignment to one Jessup, who had been a former partner of plaintiff in the liquor business and who acted as assignee at plaintiff's request. At the time of the sale, Baldwin and plaintiff made a written agreement, whereby Baldwin entered the employment of plaintiff to manage and carry on the business at the rate of $10 per week. It was proved that both of the execution creditors had advice of the sale soon after it took place, and sold goods, making out the bills to the plaintiff in some instances, and in others to Baldwin as his agent. The defendant proved that none of these sales were on credit, but were cash bills, and that Baldwin represented to Hall & Ryan, immediately after the sale, that he could pay his debts in full, or nearly so, and they were ignorant of the terms and manner of the sale until the Spring of 1862, when they sued Baldwin, and upon receiving judgment issued execution and indemnified the Sheriff. The plaintiff claimed that most of the goods levied upon had been purchased after the sale to him. It appeared, however, that these purchases had been made with the proceeds of the goods originally sold to plaintiff, and upon this point the Court charged the jury that if the original sale to plaintiff was upon any secret trust, that the store, while being carried on in plaintiff's name, was to be for the benefit of Baldwin, the new goods stood in the same position as the goods which were embraced in the original sale would have stood had they remained in the store.

The trial occupied several days, and resulted in a verdict for defendant.

For plaintiff, Messrs. Apgar & Van Orden and Edwin James; for defendant, Messrs Robinson & Wells and A. J. Vanderpoel.

MONDAY, Nov. 30—A. M.

The Trade of the past week (embraced in five days) was fairly active in the Import entries and sales of Foreign Goods, but light in the Export clearances of Domestic Produce. While there is a slight improvement in the English Market for Wheat and Flour, the orders to this side are yet too low to encourage exports, particularly on a falling rate of Exchange. There is a fair amount of other Western Produce going forward, and it is possible that the increasing stock of Cotton in this port may induce some shipments of this staple to Liverpool. The present stock is estimated from 25,000 to 30,000 bales, and the receipts continue on a fair scale from New-Orleans, by sea, and from Memphis, &c., overland.

The extreme fall of Gold through the week was 10½@11 ℔ cent. on the victory of Gen. GRANT. On Saturday the demand was active, and the price recovered 3@3½ ℔ cent. of the previous decline. Exchange, after falling to 157 ℔ cent., left off about 160 ℔ cent.

The market for Money was steady throughout the week at 7 ℔ cent. The demand from the Brokers was active, and until Saturday noon, when the action of the Associated Banks doing away with the equalization of their Legal Tender Currency was made known, there was no decided ease reported on the Street. The closing impression was that some of the Banks at least will now compete, with private lenders, with more freedom, in supplying the demand from the Brokers. Since the 1st November, large borrowers, as a rule, have not relied upon the Banks.

The Railway and other speculation on the Stock Exchange varied repeatedly through the week, first upward on Monday and Tuesday, owing to the vigorous Bull movement in Erie Common Stock, and rapidly downward on Wednesday and Friday, in sympathy with the heavy fall in Gold and the active disposition of the Bear interest to put out contracts on the probabilities of the early close of the war. On Saturday another upward turn was given to the market, and prices left off firm, Erie Stock again leading the Railway list. The changes in Government Stocks during the week are not important. In the Border State Stocks there is a rise of 2@2½ ℔ cent. in Missouris, and 1 ℔ cent. in Tennessees, with rather more disposition to speculate in them on the restoration of political quiet in Missouri and the meeting of the Legislature, which is expected to make some favorable terms with the Railway Companies in default on the State Interest. The same feeling extends to the Tennessee 6 ℔ cents originally loaned to the Railways of the State, nearly all of which are now within the Union lines.

The price of Gold advanced 3½ ℔ cent. Saturday, returning to the figure of Wednesday before the conclusive news of GRANT'S victory. As explained in a previous report the trade demand for Bills on London is good, while our exports of Domestic Produce are comparatively light. The drain of Gold from the great Banks of England and France and the high price of Money in London and Paris are calculated to hasten remittances from this side where balances are due or orders for the coming Spring trade are to be covered. Added to these causes for firmness in the Gold Market is the continued heavy short interest made in the Gold room of GILPIN'S Exchange from day to day on the confident calculation that good news from our armies must bring down the price before long. This interest has necessarily to buy Gold for delivery as their 3 day contracts fall due. The shipments to Europe Saturday were $1,115,000, making for the whole week $1,331,067.

The Associated Banks, at a general meeting Saturday, virtually abolished the arbitrary equalization of the Legal Tender Currency adopted early in this month, under a resolution adopted when the recent negotiation for $35,000,000 United States 5 ℔ cent. Legal Tender Notes was made. According to this rule, each Bank was compelled to keep its pro rata of the whole sum of Legal Tender reported from day to day at the Clearing-house, or else borrow of the Loan Committee, on 6 ℔ cent. interest, the difference between its holding and the amount equalized or assigned as its pro rata. The modification does away with all this, except where any one or more Banks report less than 10 ℔ cent. of Legal Tender to their last averaged line of net Deposits. The rare instances in which this rule will be operative, render the change tantamount to an abandonment of the equalization principle, and every Bank in the Association, is now left free to lend or withhold its own Legal Tender means. The effect upon the Money Market, as disembarrassing it of the original cause of stringency early in November, is already felt to be favorable.

The Railway Share Market opened with much steadiness at the early Board, and nearly all descriptions recovered ½@1 ℔ cent. from the depression of yesterday. Soon after the Board broke up there was a disposition to sell Erie and some of the other Roads at a concession from the printed sales. But before 2 o'clock, the turn was strongly upward again, and at the Second Board the general list was very buoyant at an advance of 1½@2 ℔ cent.

At 4 o'clock the following prices were made in comparison with Friday night, the market leaving off firm:

HIDES—Receipts have been liberal this week, (79,061 Hides,) and sales limited, (20,400 hides.) The week's movements in the principal kinds Messrs. H. D. HULL & Co. notice thus: "Dry Hides—The market, prior to our Thanksgiving holiday, was moderately active, and a fair amount of business was done at full rates, but the favorable news from our Southern army, and subsequent decline in gold, together with the large arrivals, has checked operations, and during the latter part of the week the market has ruled quiet. The trade, under the present state of affairs, manifest but little desire to operate, while holders, for the most part, remain firm in their views, though willing sellers at the rates current during the early part of the week. Wet-Salted Hides—There is a fair inquiry for Domestic Slaughters, principally for home consumption, at firm rates. The stock continues light, and is firmly held at quoted rates. We note the arrival of 2,261 Buenos Ayres, ex "La Plata," and 3,500 California, ex "M. L. Sutton," which are not yet landed. In Upper Leather Stock we have no change to report, there continuing a fair inquiry at firm prices, sales being restricted by the firmness of holders. Calcutta Hides—For cows the demand continues fair at full prices, but sales are confined to sales by dealers, their being no stock in first hands. Buffaloes are in rather better request, but most of the stock is held above the reach of buyers." Included in the week's sales have been: 3,000 Dry Buenos Ayres and Montevideo, 21@24 lbs., 29c.@29½c., cash, usual selection; 8,000 Dry Orinoco, 21½ lbs., private terms; 1,000 Dry California, 23 lbs. 26½c., cash; 3,900 Dry Central American, 16@20 lbs., 26½c., cash, usual selection; 550 Dry Bogota, 10 lbs., private terms; 700 Dry Porto Cabello, 23 lbs., private terms; 2,600 Army Slaughters, 60 lbs., private terms; 700 City Slaughters, 70 lbs., 11½c., cash; 55 bales Calcutta Buffalo, private terms. LEATHER—The demand has been quite active for Hemlock-tanned Sole, and fair for Oak-tanned do., at buoyant prices. The receipts from the tanneries are rather in excess of the average of the last few weeks, but are still insufficient to meet the requirements of buyers, and any surplus of Leather in the market seems far distant. Butter is inactive at 20c.@24c. for poor to choice Western, and 25c.@30c. for common to choice State ℔ lb. Cheese is in limited demand, at 12c.@16c. ℔ lb.

RICE—Has been in slack request at irregular prices, including East India at $7@$8 ℔ 100 lbs.

SKINS—Mexican Goat are in moderate request, and the stock is for the most part held beyond the views of buyers. The auction sale on Wednesday attracted a large company of buyers, and the bidding was spirited, with the following result: 82 bales Patua at 45½c. ℔ piece, and 5 bales Madras at 59½c., all taken by an Eastern dealer. For Deer there continues a fair demand from manufacturers and dealers, who, however, pay present asking prices with great reluctance. We note sales of about 2,000 lbs. Honduras at 90c., cash; 5,000 lbs. Central American, part at 85c., and 4,000 lbs. California on private terms.

TOBACCO—Business has been limited, since our last, and sales have been confined to 246 hhds. Kentucky at 9½c.@18c. ℔ lb.

TALLOW—Sales, 52,000 lbs., at 11¾c.@12c, ℔ lb.

WHISKY—Sales, 500 bbls., at 72c.@75c., chiefly at 73c.@75c. ℔ gallon.

WOOL—Has been less active, during the past week, especially toward the close, in view of the great depression in Gold, which had the effect of deterring buyers from purchasing freely at prevailing prices. The principal holders, however, were reluctant to make any important concessions, as supplies have been much reduced by recent heavy sales, and those now in market are deemed quite manageable at present, with money easy at 7 ℔ cent. The week's sales include 175,000 lbs. domestic fleece at from 75c.@85c., the latter rate for tub-washed; 100,000 lbs. domestic pulled at 72½c.@80c.; 500 bales California at 40c.@55c.; 350 bales Cape, mostly at 43c.@45c.; 370 bales Mestiza, part at 32c.@33c.; 500 bales Donskoi at 43c.@49c.; 200 bales Persian and Smyrna, unwashed, at 28½c.; and sundry small lots of foreign at full prices. A public sale of damaged Cape is announced for Dec. 10.

POLITICAL.

UNION NOMINATION.

FOR MAYOR.

ORISON BLUNT.

ORISON BLUNT has been a successful merchant in this City for twenty-five years.

He was elected Alderman of the Third Ward, at the General Election in 1853, and served during the year 1854.

He soon became distinguished for his uncompromising opposition to "high priced" contracts and swindles on the City Government.

By his determined opposition to the Russ Pavement Contract, in which seven dollars and fifty cents per square yard was charged for stone, it was finally surrendered.

Mr. BLUNT then took an active part in bringing into use the Belgian or Trap-Block Pavement, at one dollar and ninety cents per square yard, which met with universal favor, and which has been laid in many of the principal streets of this City.

He also strongly opposed the Offal Contract, which had been made in 1853, which contract, through Mr. BLUNT'S opposition, was finally surrendered and compromised satisfactorily to all parties, with a great saving to the City.

After that, another contract was made for the removal of the offal, which yielded a handsome revenue to the City.

During his term of service as an Alderman, Mr. BLUNT also introduced the question of using Steam Fire Engines in the Fire Department, and which he strenuously advocated.

He was appointed to examine and report the best plan or model of Steam Fire Engines, when prizes therefor were offered by the Common Council, and his report was unanimously accepted.

Steam Fire Engines which then met with so much opposition are now universally approved by the Fire Department throughout the country.

Mr. BLUNT also recommended the lighting of Piers by means of Reflectors, which plan was adopted, and has saved many valuable lives.

When the question of bringing a greater supply of Croton Water over High Bridge was agitated, Mr. BLUNT was the first to recommend the use of wrought iron pipes for the purpose, until a permanent structure could be finished.

At the Election in 1856 he was again elected Alderman, and represented the Fifteenth Ward, where he then lived, in 1857.

Here, again, he was conspicuous in his persistent and determined opposition to all jobs and fat contracts, and succeeded in stopping many of them.

He successfully opposed the sale of the Lowber Market property, and the scheme was abandoned for that year.

When the Police law was changed, he battled against FERNANDO WOOD'S friends, and sustained the Metropolitan Police Commissioners.

The entire force subsequently serenaded him at his residence. Mr. BLUNT has always sustained the force by his votes and speeches, and when the appropriation for their salaries was exhausted, he urged upon A. V. STOUT, Esq., then Chamberlain, to advance the money, notwithstanding the deficiency, and pledged himself to vote for the appropriation in the Board of Supervisors.

When the Board of Supervisors was reorganized under the Act of 1857, he was elected to that Board, and has been distinguished as a Supervisor for his zeal in protecting the best interests of the County.

When the new Board of Supervisors entered upon their duties in 1858, they found many thousands of dollars of arrearages for supplies furnished the County in previous years.

Most of these bills were examined by Mr. BLUNT, and by careful auditing on his part, the amounts were reduced in some instances more than one-half, and a great reduction made in the gross amount.

Since then, the expenditures have been kept within the amounts appropriated and raised for the year, with a balance to the credit of the County to begin the new year.

Mr. BLUNT, by his own personal efforts in exposing fraudulent measures, has prevented many of them being passed.

His opposition to the contract made by the Commissioners of Records, under which eight hundred thousand dollars of the public money has been expended, has been most determined, and he succeeded in defeating some of the appropriations proposed to be made for them.

When the rebellion commenced in earnest, and the President called for troops to defend the Capital, Mr. BLUNT devoted more time and spent more money in sending troops to the seat of war than any other private or public citizen in this City.

He was engaged night and day in equiping the regiments, providing transportation, &c., and without receiving one dollar compensation from the Government.

Before the draft was made in this City, Mr. BLUNT recommended the appropriation of two millions of dollars to procure Volunteers, and thus avoid the necessity of a draft; but he was not able at that time to secure the appropriation.

After the draft was made, and while the Common Council, who had voted three millions of dollars to exempt substitutes, could not agree as to the manner of spending the money, the Board of Supervisors, with the Mayor and Comptroller, adopted a plan by which two millions of dollars was appropriated for the purpose.

Supervisor BLUNT was selected by the Committee to carry out the provisions of the ordinance thus adopted, to procure substitutes for drafted men.

By the manner in which Mr. BLUNT managed the operations, the Firemen, Militia, Policemen and poor men, who were unable to pay the three hundred dollars exemption, were provided with substitutes, and the total cost did not reach six hundred thousand dollars. Thus, the Government got the men, and the Police, the Firemen, the Militia and others were relieved from the necessity of paying the three hundred dollars or going into the army.

So methodical and business-like were his arrangements in this expenditure of six hundred thousand dollars, that when he closed up the work, the cash balanced to a cent. Vouchers for every expenditure were filed with the Comptroller, and a balance remained of nearly one and a half millions of dollars.

When the new call for troops was made by the President, Mr. BLUNT was satisfied that, with proper bounties, a sufficient number of Volunteers could be procured to furnish the quota of the City and County of New-York, and, on his recommendation, two millions of dollars have been appropriated to procure the Volunteers.

Mr. BLUNT is a hard working man, in whatever he undertakes. Quick to discover a fraud, he is never cheated.

Liberal with his own money, he is scrupulously careful of that belonging to the public.

He would make an active, energetic Mayor.

Having risen from the ranks, he is one of the people, and knows how to take care of their interests.

He does not steal himself, nor will he let anyone else, if he can help it.

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, LEARNING that Mr. GEORGE C. BARRETT has been put in nomination as a candidate for the office of Civil Justice in the Sixth Judicial District, very cheerfully certify that we have known him, both as a practising lawyer in our Courts and while he was studying law in the office of Messrs. Barrett & Brinsmade, Wall-st.

From our knowledge of Mr. GEORGE C. BARRETT, we regard his nomination as in every way an excellent one—his professional standing being good, his abilities more than the average, and his character irreproachable.

We make this statement without reference to politics, and with the single desire to signify to the citizens of this Judicial District that, in our judgment, Mr. BARRETT is eminently fit for the position to which he aspires.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE REBELLION.

From the Army of the Potomac we have full details of operations up to Saturday morning, ten o'clock. The crossing of the Rapidan was very successful. On Friday the columns moved according to previous orders, so as to form line of battle north and south, right resting on the Rapidan, and facing toward Orange Court-house. In getting into position during the day, there was considerable heavy skirmishing, and on the right a portion of the Third corps, under Gen. French, had quite a brisk engagement with Ewell's corps, losing five hundred in killed and wounded, but holding its own, and capturing nine hundred prisoners. As our line stood then, the Third corps was on the right, supported by the Sixth corps, the Second corps in the centre, and the Fifth corps, supported by the First on the left. During Friday night the enemy retired a short distance, and on Saturday morning, at 9 o'clock, our army was a mile and a half beyond (west of) Robertson's Tavern, or within about ten miles of Orange Court-house. The indications were that Lee would fight, and he seemed to be selecting his own ground. In that case a battle probably occurred yesterday.

The news from Chattanooga is up to Saturday evening. There was no fighting that day. Gen. Bragg was apparently concentrating on Dalton, with the supposed purpose of making a stand. An order from him to Longstreet recalled that rebel and his corps from before Knoxville on the 26th, and it was believed he was endeavoring to reach Bragg by a circuitous route. Col. Lang, who made the gallant raid on the East Tennessee Railroad at Cleveland, is reported mortally wounded. By a dispatch from Gen. Meigs to Secretary Stanton, we have a clear and intelligent account of the three days' fighting, which resulted so gloriously. Our entire loss is officially stated as but little more than three thousand.

The advices from Gen. Banks' army, in Texas, show that it is making a very successful march. Aranzas City, over one hundred miles northeast of Brownsville, having been taken on the 17th inst., by the forces which marched overland from Brownsville. Three pieces of artillery and one hundred prisoners were captured.

A dispatch from Cincinnati indicates that the situation at Knoxville was encouraging on the 26th. Gen. Burnside was cheerful and confident. Part of the town had been destroyed.

GENERAL NEWS.

The health of the President is reported better. The Washington Republican, of Saturday, says: "The fever from which he has suffered has left him. Thursday and Thursday night his suffering was chiefly from severe pains in the head. Yesterday, and the day before, he was not permitted by his physician to hold any interviews even with the members of his Cabinet. It is hoped that in a day or two he will gain sufficient strength to resume his official duties."

The following table compares the Richmond and Cincinnati prices for a few leading articles, the latter in greenbacks and the former in Confederate scrip:

	Cincinnati.	Richmond.
Gold, ℔ dollar	$1 45	$16 00
Wheat, ℔ bush	1 30	15 00
Corn, ℔ bush	1 10	18 00
Lard, ℔ lb	12	2 50
Bacon, ℔ lb	8	2 75
Coffee, ℔ lb	34	10 00
Sugar, ℔ lb	15	3 25
Molasses, ℔ gal	60	15 00
Whisky, ℔ gal	75	65 00
French Brandy, ℔ gal	9 00	100 00
Butter, ℔ lb	30	5 00
Eggs, ℔ dozen	25	2 00
Potatoes, ℔ bush	1 00	16 00
Beef, ℔ lb	12	1 50

The President has ordered the suspension of the execution of the sentence in the cases of the horse contractors, Hall and Smith, tried by Court-martial in Cincinnati and convicted of defrauding the Government, until he can examine the testimony. The magnitude of the task he has assigned himself may be computed from the fact that the reported evidence, in the case of Smith alone, covers 500 pages of legal cap.

A dispatch to the Missouri Democrat says, that a daring but unsuccessful attempt to assassinate Gen. McNeil was made at Fort Smith, Ark., on the night of the 23d instant. He was returning unattended to his quarters from a social party given by a citizen; while upon the street three shots were fired at him from a revolver. He turned upon the assassin, who fled and has not yet been discovered.

A private dispatch received in Providence on Wednesday, from Gen. Burnside, reports him all right as late as Tuesday, and confirms the news relative to the strength of his position.

The great Lindell Hotel at St. Louis was opened on the evening of the 25th inst., by a ball of great splendor and brilliancy. Four thousand guests were present, and St. Louis boasts the largest hotel in the world.

The rebel Gen. Jno. H. Morgan and six of his Captains escaped from the Penitentiary at Columbus, Ohio, on Saturday, by the aid of Copperhead friends outside, and by bribing the guards. One thousand dollars reward is offered for Morgan, dead or alive.

Small pox prevails to such an extent in Nashville, Tenn., that an order has been issued from the military headquarters requiring all persons, citizens as well as soldiers, to have themselves vaccinated at once.

Wm. J. Frazier, Company B, One Hundred and Forty-third New-York, and Nicholas Reville, Co. D, One Hundred and Forty-first New-York Volunteers, died in hospital at Nashville on the 22d inst.

There was a recovery of 3½ ℔ cent. in Gold Coin on Saturday, leaving the net decline of the week 7 ℔ cent. Stocks were higher in the afternoon, and money easier at 7 ℔ cent.

The Municipal Election—Duty of All Union Men.

The Union defeat in this City, a month ago, ought to secure a Union victory to-morrow. It realized nothing then, and yet guarantees everything now, if we will but do our duty. Not one distinctive Union candidate was elected on the general City ticket, and yet it was demonstrated that this was not from want of abilty, but from the lack of systematic and well directed effort. There was nothing of that thoroughness in detail on which the efficiency of a popular canvass so much depends, and, what was even worse, there was an absence of that faith necessary to give any movement its proper impetus, any blow its rightful effect. Mozart and Tammany had so long ruled the City that it was almost taken for granted that it was simply labor lost to fight them. Our people had been so long used to their arbitrary power, that they had acquired very much the same sort of submissive spirit that keeps a European community quiet, even under a most unwelcome yoke. The outrageous abuse of that power by the attempt to make such a men as McCunn a high Judge over our liberty and property, stung us into a spasm of resistance, like some European emeute—rather the effect of despair than the prompting of hope. And yet, this wild, striking act of the day came very near laying the tyranny in the dust. It is now seen that the merest additional trifle of wise, discriminating effort would have done the business for McCunn, and that it would have cost not much more to have served out the other special favorites. Mozart and Tammany, though not knocked from their feet, were yet dreadfully staggered. If the true men of the City will only make another onset to-morrow, with the right concert and determination, their enemy, it is very certain, will get a quietus, for this year at least.

The appeal is made primarily to Union men. In ordinary times it is not wise to let national politics have much influence in determining what men shall be put in office in this City, There is little or no natural connection between the actual municipal interests and the great national questions on which politics are divided. Whether Democratic or Whig measures, or whether Democratic or Republican measures shall prevail at Washington, was a matter of very little practical moment to our well-being as a municipal organization. But in the present critical period, when the very existence of the Union is at stake, no community in the country has so great an interest in the policy which prevails at Washington, as its great commercial metropolis. If the Union can be saved only by a staunch and consistent war policy, New-York, which has derived such transcendent benefits from the Union, cannot too emphatically pronounce in its favor. And never during the war has there been another such pressing occasion for such a testimony as now, in view of the fact that New-York was so greatly dishonored and scandalized by an insurrection against that war policy last Summer. The City needs, as never before, to purge itself in its national relations. And of course it can do so in no such effectual way as by putting its Government in charge of men distinctly committed to the war policy of the National Government, and who shall devote all their official power and personal influence to the furtherance of that policy. If Mr. Blunt were an inferior man to his Tammany and Mozart competitor in any other respect but his devotion to the National cause, that single superiority on his part would give him the first claim to the Executive chair of the City. We can better afford to submit to internal abuses of any character than to be unfaithful to the country, on the salvation of which our most vital interests depend. New-York is strong enough to stand almost any amount of taxation, or to be imposed upon by almost any extent of official malfeasance, but no strength could save it from the ruin of the perpetual war and anarchy which would follow the breaking up of the Republic.

But the fact is that the Union candidate for Mayor has not only the superiority in nationality of principle, but in every requisite for the faithful and successful administration of our City affairs. His capacity and honesty have been thoroughly tested by a constant municipal service, in various responsible spheres, for the last ten years. Among the hundreds who have figured during that time in our municipal affairs, it would be hard to designate one whose official career has been more absolutely free from reproach, either in respect to misjudgment or misconduct. Orison Blunt has always done his duty intelligently and faithfully—never yielding to party what did not belong to party, never consenting to be the tool or the accomplice of any man or set of men, the constant antagonist of jobbery, and of all forms of corruption, always keeping clear of selfish combinations, and always holding true to the public good. His chief opponent has no such record. As a member of the Common Council, he has been notoriously mixed up with some of the most scandalous transactions in our City legislation for the last few years. The prime part he played in the Japanese swindle is a fair specimen of the general character of his public service. As City Inspector, he has, for the few weeks he has held the office, exhibited considerable fidelity; but such fidelity is of small account, if it be practiced simply to help him on to a higher position, where he can give freer scope to his selfish designs. We do not allege that this is positively the case. We do not say that Mr. Boole, if he could reach the Mayoralty, would not renounce his old habits and honestly try to serve the public. But the fact that he is still understood to belong to that jobbing combination known as "the Ring," and that he has the united support of Mozart and Tammany, which support it is almost impossible to secure without most positive pledges to subserve certain party and private interests at the expense of the public interests, puts the matter almost beyond question that his election would prove to be a serious calamity to every municipal interest. At all events, when the issue is between Orison Blunt and such a man, surrounded by such associations, and possessed of such antecedents, no man of real public spirit can hesitate which to support.

We invoke all men who have at heart the interests of the City, whether in its national relations or its internal concerns, to rally to the polls to-morrow with the determination to break down the thrall of the two organizations which, with the most deadly hate of each other, have struck hands simply for the spoils of office. They can surely be beaten, if all who think right will but act right.

The Danger of Over Confidence.

It may not be amiss to caution the public against over-sanguine estimates of the recent victories of the Union arms. There seems to be no doubt that Grant has achieved a very brilliant success, and has defeated Bragg's army, which was the main strength of the rebellion in that quarter. It is not yet certain, however, that he has so routed and broken it as to prevent it from taking the field again, though it is not likely that its old strength can ever be renewed. Burnside is still in a position of danger, though our latest advices indicate his ability to hold his ground until aid can reach him. Meade, moreover, has commenced a movement against Lee, from which we may reasonably anticipate the best results, though it is well to remember that Lee is a much more formidable opponent to deal with than Bragg.

If these movements are crowned with complete success, the back-bone of the rebellion will unquestionably be broken. We shall have seen the beginning of the end. But the end itself will not have been reached. Very much will remain to be done before resistance on the part of the rebels will cease, and the supremacy of the Constitution will be restored. There will still be elements of force scattered throughout the South powerful enough to require the presence and active efforts of a very large Union army, and to draw largely, for some time to come, upon the resources and the patience of the Government. For a long time, certainly for months and possibly for years, it will be necessary to maintain strong National garrisons in every part of the rebel States,—not only for the purpose of enforcing the authority of the National Government, but for the preservation of domestic peace. Our conquest, however complete, will leave society in the Southern States in a state of chaos and confusion. Its peace has rested hitherto solely on force,—on a system of repression more perfect in its details, and more rigid in its rule, than prevails in any other part of the world. This whole system will be overthrown, suddenly and by violence, and nothing is left to take its place. This lack must for a time, at least, be supplied by the National Government. The presence of very powerful Union armies will be absolutely essential in the Southern States for a long time after active hostilities against the National authority shall have ceased.

It must not be supposed, therefore, that the patriotic efforts of the friends of the Government can safely be relaxed. Every exertion must still be made to fill up the ranks of our armies. The volunteer movement should be pushed forward with steady and unremitted energy. The country will still have need of all the men it has called for. It must still expend enormous sums of money, and call upon the country for the largest contributions of men and means, to insure the complete and final overthrow of the rebellion.

The Union Victory in Georgia.

In the history of the military operations that have thus far marked the progress of the war, Gen. Grant's operations of last week stand out in distinct relief as the one example, on either side, of a victory followed up, and rendered decisive by the complete rout of the enemy. It is this unique fact which forms the most striking characteristic in a success so magnificent in all the features of its planning and execution. Indeed, in the estimate of the great weight of debt under which Gen. Grant has laid the nation by this victory, it is not easy to say whether we should set most by the material gain to the Union arms of this great blow inflicted on the enemy, or by the moral gain to the whole country of this inspiring example of unwonted military vigor and power. At a stroke, Gen. Grant has brushed away the cobwebs of military pedantry, (dignified by the name of prudence,) which would make us believe that the pursuit of a defeated foe has become an impossibility; and in a country which accumulates in itself every condition unfavorable to pursuit (thus making it the more glorious) has ground to powder and scattered to the winds a great army of the rebellion, a week ago intrenched in a position so formidable by nature and art as to seem absolutely unassailable.

Gen. Grant's victory has been so completely won "on the wing" that hardly a moiety of his captures in men and material have been made in battle. Indeed there has been throughout the week's operations, properly speaking, no great battle at all. Grant caught Bragg in the act of preparing for retreat, flung himself impetuously on the mountain lair, which the rebel Commander turned savagely to defend, routed him from it, and has since hung on his flanks and rear with the tenacity of a bloodhound. The first day's action, that of Monday, was for the enemy's advanced position, directly fronting Chattanooga, which was carried with trifling loss. Tuesday gave us the possession of the north slope of Lookout Mountain, carried by Gen. Hooker, and the north slope of Mission Ridge, carried by Gen. Sherman. During the night of Tuesday, the rebels evacuated Lookout Mountain, and thereby the valley of Chattanooga. On Wednesday Gen. Sherman assaulted the rebel position on Missionary Ridge, and was repulsed, but a general advance of the whole line carried the Ridge. As the result of these three operations, between four and five thousand prisoners and forty pieces of artillery were taken. Bragg's whole line, broken and shattered, fled during the night. "I believe," writes Gen. Grant, "I am not premature in announcing a complete victory over Bragg."

A General of the ordinary stamp would have rested abundantly satisfied with these three days' magnificent work. But Grant is not a General of the ordinary stamp. Inspired with the Napoleonic maxim that nothing is done till all is done, pursuit presented itself as the next thing in order. "We will pursue the enemy in the morning," he writes on Wednesday night. Flying columns accordingly were promptly dispatched after the broken battalions of the enemy—Hooker toward Ringgold, Sherman toward Redclay, and other corps wherever the enemy was to be found. This completed the work. It had been a defeat; it now became a rout, with all its attendant exhibitions. "It is a singular thing," says Marmont, "the different impression produced upon the soldier when he looks the enemy in the face, and when he turns his back upon him. In the first case, he only sees what really exists; in the second, his imagination increases the danger." All the powerful effects of this subtle metaphysical influence are fully displayed in the details which reach us of this wonderful flight and pursuit, continued for four days and perhaps not yet ended. Artillery, ammunition, caissons, wagons, arms, knapsacks, everything, in fact, that impeded their flight, was thrown away. "Wherever we reach portions of the rebel army," writes an eye-witness, "they instantly throw down their arms and scatter like frightened sheep. What is now left of Bragg's boasted army is but a panic-stricken mob." The captures already have been immense—in men reaching probably ten thousand, in artillery at least sixty pieces.

We have said before that last week's work stands out in the history of the war as our sole example of a defeat, turned, by a vigorous pursuit, into a total rout. We may add that there are few examples in military history of a pursuit that will match it. There is, however, one case so analagous to it, that the description of each might almost stand for either indifferently. The instance is Blucher's pursuit of Napoleon's army after the defeat of Waterloo, and the details are thus indicated by Venturini:

> "The furiously pursued mass of the fugitives fled with wild rapidity a distance of about two leagues, and came at last to Genappes, where they fancied they would be able to pass the night. They hastened to drag together some wagons to serve as a protection against cavalry, barricaded the entrance of the chief street, and placed a few pieces in battery in order to hold in check the pursuing enemy. Scarcely had this been done when the Prussian bugle-horn was heard. All started up, and the flight began with greater disorder and confusion than before. The cannoniers abandoned their pieces, the soldiers of the train cut the traces of their horses and raced away. Infantry, cavalry, all the different arms, promiscuously mingled, fled across the fields. Here and there separate crowds had massed themselves, following involuntarily those whom accident had placed at their head. Wherever they endeavored to withstand they were cut down or taken prisoners. The mournful flight had lasted during the whole night, throughout which the terror was so great that numerous mobs of cavalry and infantry allowed themselves to be captured without resistance. When the day dawned the remnants of the army reached, some Charleroy, others Marchienne, and hastened to make their way over the Sambre, the army going to pieces spontaneously."

Whether the blow which Grant has inflicted on the army of Bragg is to be counted as crushing as that which Blucher dealt the legions of Napoleon, can only be known when we are able to grasp the full scope of what has already been done, and when the work itself shall have been finished, which it is not as yet. There is every present appearance that when Gen. Grant gets through with the business, the great rebel army of the Southwest will have ceased to exist: not, necessarily, that he will have "bagged" or butchered the whole host; but that its losses in men and material shall be so great, its disintegration and demoralization so complete, as to render it no longer available as an independent, effective army. The budget of rebel losses may show greater or less; but this, we believe, will be the net result. In doing this Gen. Grant has done what no other Commander on either side has done during this war, and what has not very often been done in any wars.

The Vote of the City.—There are three candidates running for Mayor now, as there were two years ago, and it may be well to recall the vote then given as indicating a division of the Democratic vote, which gives the friends of Mr. Blunt confidence of success in the present canvass. In 1861, in the contest for Mayor, the vote stood:

Opdyke	25,380
Gunther	24,767
Wood	24,167
Total	74,314

At the election in November, the vote for Register stood thus:

McCool	35,957
Keyser	24,961
Ferris	6,483
Total	67,401

It is expected that Gunther will draw off very largely from the regular Democratic vote, so as to make the contest more nearly what it was in 1861.

An Unfounded Rumor.—A report was in circulation yesterday that Orison Blunt had declined the nomination for Mayor in favor of Gunther. We are requested to state that there is not the slightest foundation for this report. Mr. Blunt has not declined, and will not decline.

Hooker's Battle Above the Clouds.—Quartermaster Gen. Meigs, in his lively account of the three days' conflict before Chattanooga, mentions the notable fact that in Gen. Hooker's fight up the slopes of Lookout Mountain, "much of the battle was fought above the clouds, which concealed him from our view, but from which his musketry was heard." There is on record at least one parallel to this in the campaign of Napoleon in the Carnic Alps, in 1797. The battle of the Col de Tarvis, March 22, 1797, was fought above the clouds—the artillery thundering in the very laboratory of storms and arsenal of the electric batteries—while the cavalry charged and performed their evolutions on the ice, and the infantry floundered to the attack through snow three feet thick.

AMUSEMENTS.

There will be an extra performance at the Academy of Music to-night, for the benefit of Mr. Max Maretzek. Such an announcement would be meanly received if it did not suffice to fill the establishment from pit to roof. Mr. Maretzek's energy during the past two months has been unexampled. He has produced several new operas and revived a dozen of acceptable old ones. In the last week of his season he treated his patrons to Gounod's "Faust"—a work which will be repeated for his benefit to-night. If Mr. Maretzek had been able to bring this important work before the public at an earlier period of the season, he would have gained a rich reward for his enterprise. The work has leaped already into popularity. The performance on Friday night was enthusiastic. All the leading morceaux were encored. It is significant, too, that on Saturday Mr. Theodore Thomas gave a selection from the opera at his popular matinée, whilst in the evening the Arion Society, at their grand vocal and instrumental concert, sang the soldiers' chorus of the 4th act with immense success. On the same night, too, Mr. S. B. Mills played at the same entertainment Liszt's famous arrangement of the waltz in the second act. If Mr. Maretzek could remain at the Academy for a month longer, he would have no occasion to change his programme. The "Faust" furore would carry him safely through to Christmas. This, unfortunately, is no longer possible. To-night we are to hear the opera for the last time. This, and the circumstance that the impresario is a favorite with the public, will, we are sure, fill the house to overflowing. If it does not, nothing we can say will contribute to that end.

The simplest way of courting failure on any subject is to be overanxious concerning it. One-half of the breakdowns of life arise from too much effort. It is the pale-faced student, with the overwrought mind and a large consciousness of responsibilities, who is in danger of being plucked, not the phlegmatic drudge who cares for nothing in particular, and would just as soon march out without a degree as with one. These remarks are suggested by the poor performance on Wednesday last. The artists of Mr. Maretzek's company are singularly conscientious; they had labored hard at rehersal, and studied the music with intelligence and devotion. They knew that a great deal was expected of them, and, with a single exception they all failed. But on Friday, when the opera was repeated for the second time, the wholesome fruits of thoroughness had ripened. Signor Mazzoleni had entirely recovered his presence of mind, and pioneered his rather intractable voice through the difficult passages of the music with much success. Signor Biachi surpassed the most sanguine expectations of his friends. The music, though somewhat wide its scope, suits Signor Biachi's voice, and he succeeded in interpreting it to the satisfaction of all present. In the serenade of the fourth act he was honored with an encore. Signor Biachi's impersonation of the character was not inferior to his rendering of the music; both were excellent in the garden scene. It is here that Miss Stockton has a pleasant little opportunity of displaying the agreeable quality of her voice. The passages allotted to Martha are amongst the prettiest in the opera.

Miss Kellogg's Margherita was from the first perfect. It formed the exception on the opening night, and on Friday maintained a steady preëminence. The part is of itself picturesque, but if it were less so it could not fail, in such charming hands, to win the sympathy of the audience. From the moment when the prim, modest, demure Margherita crosses the stage, and declines the proferred arm of Faust—and how gracefully none can imagine who have not heard the passage in which she does so—until the last scene, when the angels, being in a great hurry, commit the unpardonable error of going up to heaven without her, she is the heroine not merely of the opera, but of the beautiful poem from whence its principal situations are taken. In the garden scene of the third act Miss Kellogg's acting is singularly beautiful. Quiet but extatic, it expresses the earnestness without surrendering the modesty of a maiden yet unharmed by and unmindful of the temptations of the world. In the church scene Miss Kellogg attained to a degree of dramatic intensity of which we hardly thought she was capable. Throughout the opera the music of the rôle receives the most delicate treatment from this accomplished prima donna. It suits her voice to perfection; there is not a note in it that could be sung more truthfully, or with better effect. We have no recollection of a performance that was so admirable and well sustained in all musical and dramatic respects. It is a thousand pities that the opera must be withdrawn.

An admirable concert was given by the Arion Society, at Irving Hall, on Saturday evening. The programme introduced not merely the fine chorus of the Society, but several soloists and a grand orchestra of fifty players, under the direction of Mr. Carl Bergmann. A young lady vocalist, Mlle. Stella Bonheur, created an exceedingly favorable impression in Ah! forse e lui, from "La Traviata." Mr. Wm. Lotti sang the charming romanca from "Euryanthe," and was deservedly encored. In the piece from Wagner's "Rienzi," he was not so successful. It ought to be bawled, not sung. Mr. S. B. Mills played the "Faust" waltz with great effect and brilliancy. Another pianist, Mr. C. Demuth, also performed a movement from Hummel's concerto, but surcharged it with so many eccentricities of time and expression, that the performance cannot be referred to with applause. The orchestra played a couple of overtures with effect, and wound up with the Rakoczy March. For the rest the members of the Society are responsible. Their best effort was in the Fanfare and Soldier's Chorus from "Faust," and next in the solo and chorus from "Rienzi." In the latter they avoided the error of Mr. Lotti, to which we have referred. The Hall was well filled, and the concert so much of a success that more than half the pieces had to be repeated.

Mr. Carl Anschutz will commence his grand season of German Opera, at the Academy of Music, on Wednesday next. The opera selected for the occasion is Flotow's "Stradella." Good: it might have been "Martha;" or, who knows, even "Der Freischutz." Now we are safe for a week at least. Capital opera "Stradella." Quite fresh!

There are several important changes at the Broadway theatres to-night. At the Winter Garden Tom Taylor's new and eminently successful drama of "The Ticket of Leave" will be produced for the first time in New-York. It is an extremely powerful piece, and although introduced by Mr. and Mrs. Florence, affords scope for all the principal members of the regular company. We hear that Mr. Jackson has exerted himself to place the piece on the stage in a creditable manner. At the Olympic theatre Mrs. John Wood gives the public an entire change of programme; the pieces for to-night are as follows: the "Actress by Daylight;" the drama of the "Stricken Heart," and the farce of the "Yankee Legacy." In the piece last named Mrs. Lotty Hough—an old member of the company at this house—will make her first appearance under Mrs. Wood's management. At Niblo's Garden Mr. and Mrs. Barney Williams bring out the fairy spectacle called the "Lakes of Killarney," and the farce called the "Irish Tiger." In the first of these pieces there is a great opportunity for a panorama of the Irish lakes, which we presume will be duly improved. Mr. Wheatley does not often miss his chances in the scenic way.

At Mr. Wallack's theatre the drama of "Rosedale" enters its tenth week.

At the Theatre Français to-morrow (Tuesday) night there is an admirable programme, viz.: the operetta of "Jean le Sot;" the comedietta of "La Pluie et le Beau Temps," and the vaudeville "Le Tiger de Bengale."

Several novelties are announced by Mr. George Christy, at his charming little minstrelsy hall, opposite Niblo's Garden.

The Stereoscopticon, at Hope Chapel, continues to attract the attention of the lovers of travel and arts.

"Doesticks," the well-known humorist, commences his lecture season in the West to-night. He carries with him two new manuscripts, one on "Cheek," the other on "Shoddy," and supplemental to these his poem on "Pluck." The members of the journalistic craft, will, we trust, extend the usual courtesies to Mr. Mortimer Thompson.

Mr. Barnum—who is constantly harrowing up the feelings of the community—announces that this is the last week of the Giants and the Lilliputian King. The time is, therefore, short to see these long specimens of humanity. In the Lecture-room (afternoon and evening) the spectral drama of "The Shade, or the Bond of Death," will be performed, together with the operetta of the "Rough Diamond." Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gomersal make their last appearances in the latter piece during the present week. In addition to these attractions, there are the usual curiosities of the Museum to amuse the spectator at all hours of the day.

The Park Theatre (Brooklyn).—It was the advertised intention of the manager to open this week with a sensation drama, prepared with great carefulness for his stage, in which he would sustain the principal rôle. A sudden and somewhat severe illness has compelled him to postpone this, and to-night he will give the "Pride of the Market," with Miss Irving, Miss Mary Shaw and Lennox in the cast, and the "Lottery Ticket," which is one of the best farces on the stage.

Musical Matinees.—Following in the honorable footsteps of Mr. L. F. Harrison, of Irving Hall, Mr. Gabriel Harrison, of Brooklyn, announces a series of matinées at his beautiful theatre on Fulton-street. Mme. Borchard and Messrs. S. C. Campbell and Wm. Castle are engaged, and no expense or pains will be spared to make the concert worthy of the city and the reputation of those interested. The first matinée will be given on Wednesday, December 2, at 2½ o'clock precisely. The price of admission will be fifty cents, and no reserved seats will be sold.

Mr. Grau and his operatic company of Italian artists will perform this evening at the Newark Library Hall. Boston, Providence and Albany will be visited during the present week.

THE OPINION OF AN OLD FOGY ON THE POWER OF STEAM.

Considerable feeling has been excited by an incident in the trial of the Sickles cut-off case in our District Court. Chief-Engineer Isherwood, of the navy, was placed on the stand and testified that he had made the discovery that there was no benefit in using the power of steam expansively; that the Navy Department had adopted his views, and that they would be applied to the construction of engines in war steamers now being built. Under cross-examination he swore that the America ought ought not to run faster than eight knots an hour if his theory was correct, and that if she went eleven knots the whole navy was wrong. He also swore that if an engine would run faster with a cut-off than without it, then the Naval Construction Bureau was all in error. In contradiction of Isherwood's testimony, Charles Reeder, of Baltimore, testified that his theory was false, and not founded in fact, and that Lake Erie experiments, on which Isherwood has built his theory, and was building our war steamers, neither proved nor tended to prove anything whatever about the true way of working steam. The feeling excited by this case is strong and a purpose to recall Isherwood and make him explain or take back his testimony is fully formed.

Chloasma, or Moth Patches.

Blemishes on the face, called Moth, are very annoying, particularly to ladies of light complexion, as the discolored spots on the skin show more strongly on blondes than on brunettes, but they contribute greatly in marring the beauty on either, and anything that will remove Moth Patches without injuring the skin in texture or color, would no doubt be considered a great achievement in medical science. Dr. B. C. PERRY, having devoted his whole time and attention to Diseases of the Skin, will guarantee to remove Moth Patches, Freckles, and other discolorations from the face without injury to either texture or color of the skin. NEW-YORK CENTRAL RAILROAD.

The undersigned stockholders in the New-York Central Railroad, feeling deeply interested in a reform of the management of said Road, respectfully recommend all holders of stock who cannot be themselves present at the ensuing election of Directors, to send their proxies to Thomas W. Olcott, Albany, John E. Williams and George F. Tallman, of New-York, or either of them, to be voted upon by them at that election.

At some time previous to that day a meeting will be called of all the stockholders who may thus send them their proxies, for the nomination of a Board of Directors, for whom their votes will be cast.

The undersigned respectfully suggest that the interest of stockholders will be better secured by thus placing their proxies in the hands of disinterested and well known gentlemen, such as those named above, than by submitting them to the present officers of the Road, to be used in securing their own reëlection.

READ.

HARLEM, July 30, 1863.

I have been deaf for over TWENTY-FIVE YEARS, and Dr. VON EISENBERG operated on both of my ears without the slightest pain—a thing that I could not believe could be done. I now hear well, and feel as I never felt for the last twenty years. The dexterity and skill with which the operation was performed evince the highest practical ability. I hear perfectly. It is now over a month since the operation, and I continue to feel as well as ever.

CATARRH CURED.

NEW-YORK, Aug. 23, 1863.

I have been suffering for the last three years from a severe Catarrh, with a continual dullness in my head, a tightness across my chest, a weight over my eyes, which were weak, watery and very painful. My nostrils were continually obstructed with a pouring of fluid. I have had frequent sneezing, hoarseness of my voice, generally attended with spitting, often with a fullness of my throat, together with a soreness and a dropping. Dr. VON EISENBERG has cured me of all these disagreeable sufferings. I now feel a new life. The treatment of Dr. VON EISENBERG is as skillful as it is successful; it is impossible to overrate the benefit I have received at his hands. I heartily recommend any one suffering like myself to place themselves under Dr. VON EISENBERG'S care, with a certainty of being speedily cured. I give this with gratitude and pleasure. I cannot forbear again saying that my voice, which was hoarse and thick when I applied to Dr. VON EISENBERG, is now clear and good; indeed, I feel abundantly satisfied.

JAMES LITTLE,
No. 245 7th-st., New-York.

NEW-YORK, Sept. 8.

I have been suffering for years past from a severe Catarrh, with a great heaviness over my eyes, with a severe depression, great uneasiness, and pain in my head, great difficulty in breathing, and a continual accumulation in my nostrils, which gave me restless nights for several years. I have consulted several physicians, who pronounced me to be consumptive. What I suffered for so long a time is indescribable. My system was entirely disarranged and greatly debilitated. I not only felt weak, but I had a cloud continually before my eyes, and my ears were so affected that I was threatened with a total loss of hearing. I must say, I think, I was guided by Providence to come to Dr. Von Eisenberg, who not only cured me of my Catarrh by removing an astonishing quantity of disagreeable matter from my head, but he restored me to perfect health, a blessing I have not enjoyed for many years. Now I enjoy a good night's rest, and pursue my business with comfort. I must acknowledge that Dr. Von Eisenberg's mild and scientific treatment for Catarrh deserves the highest commendation, as the principle which directs his system of curing Catarrh is such as to render success certain.

JAMES FURLONG, No. 566 2d-av.

No. 124 ALLEN-ST., NEW-YORK, Feb. 9, 1863.

I have been completely deaf in one ear, and partially so in the other, for above seventeen years, with a disagreeable discharge from both ears, combined with continual rumbling noise in the head, for which I have been treated by a most eminent practitioner in the City without the slightest relief.

I consulted Dr. Von Eisenberg, but I must candidly say that I had no faith in his success when I did so. It is, therefore, due to Dr. Von Eisenberg to acknowledge that I am entirely cured; also, that he displayed that skill and knowledge which have procured for him such an unrivaled reputation. As I have had an opportunity of comparing his mode of treatment with that of others, I can truly state that it is not only superior, but the principles which direct his mode of restoring the hearing are, in my opinion, certain.

JOHN TAYLOR.

NEW-YORK, July 19, 1862.

This certifies that my mother has been for some time afflicted with partial deafness, suffering from pain, and rumbling noises in the head, together with other indications of a total loss of hearing. Dr. Von Eisenberg removed from her ears a great quantity of matter, together with coagulated blood, relieving her instantaneously, and all without pain. It is with grateful thanks that I give this testimony to his skill.

SIGHT RESTORED.

JUNE 25, 1863.

My daughter brought me to Dr. VON EISENBERG almost completely blind in both eyes. I could not bear the pain nor the light. I am completely cured by Dr. VON EISENBERG, and called now to express my gratitude to the Doctor for his skill and unremitting attention, by which I recovered one of the most precious senses to me after being deprived of it for four years. It is only due to Dr. VON EISENBERG to state that I have tried several physicians in vain. I shall be happy to bear personal testimony to Dr. VON EISENBERG'S unrivaled success to any lady or gentleman who will call on me.

CHRONIC CATARRH CURED.

READ.

NEW-YORK, March 26, 1863.

"This is to certify, that I have suffered from very severe CHRONIC CATARRH, with a dull heaviness in the head. "I felt my nose completely stopped up accompanied by continual soreness of the throat, the chills stealing over me with occasional hot flushes, a great tightness of the chest and pain, so much so, that every one thought it was consumption. Having heard of the great cures performed by Dr. Von Eisenberg, I consulted him with but little hope of a cure. I am now happy to be enabled to add my testimonial to the great number already in the Doctor's possession, as to his scientific and successful mode of treatment, as he has shown in my case that skill and knowledge which have procured for him so great a reputation. I am so entirely restored to perfect health that I do most sincerely recommend all sufferers from CHRONIC CATARRH and SORE THROAT to apply at once to Dr. Von Eisenberg with a certainty of being cured."

BROOKLYN, Nov. 19, 1863.

We, the undersigned, feeling that we are being and have been greatly benefited by Dr. ROWE, by his treatment for Catarrh, and believing it to be the most practicable method of treatment, recommend those similarly afflicted to avail themselves of it:

Abrm. M. Kirby, Secretary Montauk Fire Insurance Co., No. 79 Clinton-st., Brooklyn.

Daniel Van Voorhies, Ryerson-st., near Gates-av., Brooklyn.

John G. Voorhes, No. 282 Adelphi-st., Brooklyn.

Besides these, other references can be had on application to Dr. Rowe's Office, No. 49 Concord-st., Brooklyn.

CATARRH CURED.

From Mr. Thomas S. Day, of Brooklyn.
No. 223 PEARL-ST., BROOKLYN, N. Y., Sept. 13, 1863.

For the benefit of those similarly afflicted, I make the following statement: For ten years my daughter was afflicted with Catarrh, which gradually grew worse until it had so impaired her health that we felt convinced she must die. The discharge from the head and throat was incessant, frequently accompanied by blood. After having tried every one and everything in vain, as a last resort I called on Dr. Rowe, under whose care she has been entirely cured and restored to the enjoyment of excellent health.
THOMAS S. DAY.

OPERATIONS FOR CROSS EYES.

From Mr. John Ennis.
No. 94 CONCORD-ST., BROOKLYN, Nov. 23, 1863.

Dr. ROWE has operated successfully on my daughter for cross-eye. The eye, from being very badly crossed, is now quite straight. Before the operation her eyes were weak, now they are strong and her sight improved.
JOHN ENNIS.

From Mr. Robert Stephenson.
No. 280 JAY-ST., BROOKLYN, Oct. 28th, 1863.

This is to certify that Dr. ROWE has operated on my son, who was cross-eyed from infancy, and has straightened his eyes perfectly.
ROBERT STEPHENSON.

From M. D. Naar, Esq., Assistant Editor of the True American, Trenton, N. J.:
TRENTON, Sept. 16, 1862.

DR. ROWE—Sir: The operation performed by you upon me for strabismus, (or cross-eyes,) with which I was born, has resulted to the entire satisfaction of myself and friends. I beg leave to add this to the many testimonials you already possess of your skill in this branch of your profession.
Yours, very truly,
M. D. NAAR,
Assistant Editor True American.

From Edwin M. Hambright, Esq., of Mount Holly, N. J.
MOUNT HOLLY, N. J., Jan. 29, 1862.

DR. ROWE:—Dear Sir: I am happy to inform you that my daughter's eyes are quite straight, though very badly crossed (from infancy) before you operated on them. It has made the greatest improvement possible, not only in her appearance, but in her sight. We and all our friends are much pleased with the benefit she has derived, and the citizens of this place are universal in their praise of it.
EDWIN M. HAMBRIGHT.

CURE OF DEAFNESS.

From Caleb Sagar, Esq., of Trenton, N. J.
TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 25, 1862.

This is to certify that my daughter having been afflicted for eighteen years with deafness and discharges from both ears, caused from scarlet fever when two years old, I placed here under the care of Dr. Rowe. Now her hearing is restored; she hears quite distinctly, and the discharges from both ears are entirely stopped. From my intercourse with Dr. Rowe, I feel justified in recommending him as a gentlemen well versed in the diseases he makes a specialty of.
CALEB SAGER,
Steward State Lunatic Asylum.

A WORD TO CLERGYMEN.

The high character, scholastic attainments, erudition and social qualifications of American Clergymen, are in strong contrast with the narrow prejudices and limited resources which have marked the history of other nations, and of earlier periods of the world. Coming directly in contact with the theories of the most enlightened minds, as well as the customs of common life, they are better calculated to judge of popular opinion and current ideas, than any other class of men. Their influence is unbounded. Their opportunities for directing practical reforms and progressive developments impose many obligations. In acknowledgment of the many complimentary indorsements and favors which DR. DRAKE has received from Clergymen in behalf of his PLANTATION BITTERS, he has directed his Agents, Messrs. BARNES & CO., No. 202 Broadway, N. Y., to present a bottle gratis to every Clergyman who may personally call during the remainder of this year, 1863.

Quite to his surprise, he has ascertained that many persons, sharing in a natural prejudice against supposed nostrums, have classed this with other useless articles, and are yet entirely ignorant of its pure character and wonderful effects.

Dr. DRAKE seeks no confidence not founded upon evidences of skill and fair, open dealing; relying upon the intelligence of the people, he makes a medicine of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Dandelion, Cascarilla Bark, Camomile Flowers, Lavender Flowers, Anise, Clove Buds, Orange Peel, Carraway, Chinquafilla, Snake Root, &c., &c., preserved in pure St. Croix Rum—and tells them so. Physicians have to indorse him.

With this recipe before the community, and evidences of effects meeting them on all sides, the success of Dr. DRAKE stands founded upon the rock of truth. Every Parish—almost every family—has some case of suffering which the PLANTATION BITTERS will alleviate and cure. Their effects in cases of lassitude, enervation, loss of appetite, constipation, sour stomach, fœtid breath, pain after eating, headache, dyspepsia, liver complaint, general debility, &c., are most remarkable. For aged persons and delicate females they are worth their price in gold.

Let every Clergyman improve this opportunity, and armed with a bottle of PLANTATION BITTERS, dispense healing without money and without price.

MR. PARTON'S NEW WORK IS READY.

GEN. BUTLER IN NEW-ORLEANS;

A History of the Administration of the Department of the Gulf in the year 1862, with an account of the capture of New-Orleans, and a sketch of the previous career of the General, civil and military. By JAMES PARTON, author of "Life and Times of Aaron Burr," "Life of Andrew Jackson," &c. Crown 8vo, with portrait on steel, and maps. 650 pp. Price, in cloth, $2; half calf, extra, or antique, $3 50. When the extraordinary interest of the subject of this volume, and the rare ability of its author to clothe his relations of events with fascination are considered, it is evidently probable that the rebellion will produce no more interesting volume than this. Published by MASON BROTHERS, Nos. 5 and 7 Mercer-st., New-York.

PROBABLY EVERY BOY WHO DOES NOT ALREADY OWN
THE DRUMMER BOY,

Expects to during the Holidays. It is without doubt the most attractive volume in every respect for the young that has been issued. But boys, at the present time, it is almost impossible to get them made as fast as they sell. What can we do during the holidays? Ask your fathers to buy the book now and lay it away.

It is better than "The Bobbin Boy." It is better than "The Printer Boy." It is better than even the new book, "Dick Onslow's Adventures Among the Red Skins," and the publishers do not wish to have the boys disappointed.

Sold by all Booksellers.

READY THANKSGIVING WEEK.

THE KEY-NOTE, A NEW COLLECTION OF CHURCH AND SINGING SCHOOL MUSIC, by WM. B. BRADBURY, is ready at last, and the publishers believe will repay the many singing schools and choirs which have been waiting for it. Other editions will follow immediately. One hundred pages are devoted to the Elements of Music, with a great amount of new Singing School Music, and nearly three hundred pages to Sacred Music, as tunes of all metres, anthems, chants, and other set pieces, mostly new. The work is printed throughout from large plain type, one part on a staff. Price, per dozen, $10. A single copy to any teacher, for examination, by mail, post-paid, for $1. NOTICE.

To the Stockholders of the New-York and Harlem Railroad Company:

The increasing business of the Company and anticipated connections with other Railroads render it expedient forthwith to extend the double track from its present terminus at Williams Bridge to Chatham Four Corners, and to complete the road from that place through to Albany.

For the purpose of meeting the necessary outlays attending such constructions, and to defray the expenses incident to the extensions of the City Railroad already authorized, the Board of Directors have resolved that it is expedient to increase the Capital Stock to such amount, not exceeding the limitation of the Charters, as may be sanctioned by the requisite vote of the Stockholders, and to issue the increased stock from time to time as may be required for the purposes of completing such double track and extensions and procuring the necessary additional rolling stock.

The amount of the Capital Stock, as limited by the charter and amendatory acts, and including both the Common and Preferred Stock, is eight millions of dollars, of which two millions one hundred and thirty-nine thousand nine hundred and fifty dollars remained unissued.

The Board of Directors propose that the Capital Stock be increased to its full amount.

A meeting of the Stockholders for the purpose of acting upon such resolution of the Board of Directors and of concurring in the increase of the Capital Stock to the full amount, authorized by the Charter and the several acts of the Legislature, amendatory thereof, will be held at the Office of the Company, at the corner of 26th-st. and 4th-av., on TUESDAY, the first day of December next, at 12 o'clock noon of that day.

For the purpose of ascertaining the Stockholders who shall be entitled to vote at such meeting, the Books of Transfer will be closed, as required by law, on Saturday, the 7th day of November inst., the day of the first publication of this notice.

The Books will be open on Tuesday, the 10th day of November inst.

BUSINESS CHANCES.

TO CAPITALISTS.

A RARE BUSINESS CHANCE.

An established manufacturing business, with extensive facilities, wide reputation and substantial foundation, entirely out of debt, sales exclusively for cash, and may, with liberal exertion be extended without limit; profits large. The works are situated in the City of New-York, and owned by the present concern; the business is highly respectable, reliable and pleasant. The whole concern is offered for sale to a reliable party on reasonable terms. If desired, one of the parties of the present concern will put into a new concern one-half of the assets already in the business, providing an acceptable party will advance a sufficient amount to buy out the parties interested in the other half, also to advance a portion of the working capital. The whole amount wanted to effect such an arrangement will be from $35,000 to $40,000. It is a stirling business to form a company with, in which parties who can control capital may make for themselves desirable positions, besides would pay good salaries, and with proper management declare large dividends to the stockholders. In the latter case a larger amount of money would be required.

PRIVATE DISEASES CURED IN THE shortest possible time, by Dr. WARD & CO., No. 50 Lispenard-st., near Broadway, without the use of Mercury, loss of time or change of diet. Dr. WARD, from the hospitals of London, Paris and Edinburgh, is the discoverer of the only certain and reliable remedies for diseases of a private character. In 28 years' practice he has cured more cases of Secret Diseases and Wrong Treatment than all others combined. I can and will cure you in less time and expense than any one can or will, and those who have been robbed of their money and health, call; it will take but little money and time to restore you. If you have been unfortunate, call at once. By his special experience in this much neglected branch of medical science, he is enabled to guarantee a cure in the most complicated cases. Recent cases of Gonorrhœa or Syphilis cured in a few days, without change of diet or hindrance from business. Secondary Syphilis—the last vestige eradicated without the use of Mercury. Involuntary emissions stopped in a short time. Sufferers from Impotency, or loss of sexual power, restored to full vigor in a few weeks. Permanently and speedily cured by a new treatment. Persons at a distance failing to receive prompt treatment elsewhere, may get a permanent cure effected by writing a full diagnosis of their case, addressed to Dr. WARD, No 50 Lispenard-st., the only place. Call, send for a circular, or write.

SURE CURE—BY DR. POWERS. SUCCESSfully consulted with Dr. WARD, No. 50 Lispenard-st. Conducted on the plan of the Hospital des Veneriens, Paris, where those afflicted with any form of private disease can receive prompt treatment, without risk or exposure, viz.: Syphilis, gonorrhœa gleet, strictures, ulcers, tumors, cancers, secondary and constitutional syphilis, diseases of the kidneys, &c., &c. Thirty years of extensive practice, exclusively devoted to the treatment of those complaints enable us to effect cures in cases where others of less experience have failed. Dr. Powers' Essence of Life restores the vigor of youth in four weeks. This marvelous agent restores manhood to the most shattered constitution—physical disqualifications, impediments to marriage, thereby speedily cured. The men to consult, Drs. Ward and Powers, the champions and kings of venereal diseases, possessing the most certain, speedy and only effectual remedies in the world, guarantee a perfect cure, or no charge, in from one to three days. Established in 1840. These who have used their preventive are never without. Send for a circular. To Ladies.—Dr. Powers' Periodical Drops are a safe and certain remedy for monthly irregularities. The above remedies sent by mail. The afflicted should read their circular. Postage free, on receipt of a stamp. Cures warranted.

HUNDREDS ARE RUINED BEYOND redemption in this life by not calling on Dr. HUNTER at first; he has for thirty years confined his attention to diseases of a certain class, in which he has cured no less than fifty thousand cases. His remedies are mild, and there is no interruption to business or change of diet. Dr. HUNTER is in constant attendance from 8 o'clock in the morning until 10 at night, at his old office, No. 3 Division-st. Charges moderate and a cure guaranteed. Separate rooms, so that the patient sees no one but the Doctor himself. His wonderful medical discovery, Dr. Hunter's Red Drops, cures certain diseases, when regular treatment, and all other remedies fail; cures without dieting or restriction in the habits of the patient; cures without the disgusting and sickening effects of all other remedies; cures in new cases in less than six hours; cures without the dreadful consequent effects of mercury, and possesses the peculiarly valuable property of annihilating the rank and poisonous taint that the blood is sure to absorb unless his remedy is used. This is what he claims for it, and what no other will accomplish. It is $1 a vial, with a medical work on Human Frailty, Nervous Debility, Early Indiscretion, and consultation gratis.

DR. COBBETT, MEMBER OF THE N. Y. University, (Medical College,) and Royal College of Surgeons, London, has removed from No. 19 Duane-st. to his present very convenient suite of offices at No. 24 Centre-st., between Chambers and Reade sts., with a private entrance at No. 6 City Hall-place, where he can be consulted with the most honorable confidence on all diseases affecting the urinary organs; thirty years in his present specialty, (three of which have been at the Hospitals of this City,) enable him to guarantee a cure in every case undertaken, or make no charge. Strictures of the urethra, impotency, seminal weaknesses, &c., treated on the most scientific principles. N. B.—As a proof of Dr. C.'s qualifications, he would call special attention to his Diplomas, which can be seen in his office.

DR. COOPER, NO. 14 DUANE-ST., MAY BE confidently consulted on all diseases of a private nature. A practice of 30 years, devoted to the treatment and cure of Syphilitic, Mercurial and diseases of a delicate nature, enables Dr. C. to make speedy and permanent cures, no matter of how long standing the case may be. Strictures of the urethra and seminal weakness, brought on by a secret habit, effectually cured. The victims of misplaced confidence, who have been misled by quack advertisements, can call on Dr. C. with the certainty of being radically cured. N. B.—Dr. C. is a qualified physician and surgeon, and a member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of New-York.

SULPHUR AND VAPOR BATHS—ESTABlished in 1820. The only genuine baths in the United States, at No. 1 Carroll-place, Bleecker-st., corner of Laurens, for cure of rheumatism, mercurial affections, &c. Given daily by Dr. A. L. TIMOLAT & CO.

MANHOOD AND THE VIGOR OF YOUTH regained in three days by Dr. POWERS' ESSENCE OF LIFE. This wonderful agent restores manhood to the most shattered constitution, radically curing Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility, and impediments to marriage generally; Nervousness, Mental and Physical Incapacity, resulting from self-abuse, &c. The time required to cure the most inveterate case is one week. Failure is impossible. This life-restoring remedy should be taken by all about to marry, as its effects are permanent. D., No. 50 Lispenard-st., between Broadway and Church-st., New-York.

MAURICEAU, Professor of Diseases of Women, has just published the 160th edition of the valuable book, entitled "THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION," strictly intended for those whose health or circumstances forbid a too rapid increase of family. Price $1. WORTH READING.

The following is from Amos. B. Corwine, Esq., late American Consul at Panama:

New-Rochelle, N. Y., Oct. 23, 1863.

Messrs. Carreño Brothers & Co.:

Gentlemen: I take great pleasure in testifying to the efficacy of your "Tropical Balsam," having tried it on one of my sons, who had been suffering from a severe cough for several weeks, which baffled all remedies until I was advised to try the Balsam. This I did, resulting in curing the cough in three days. I look upon it as a most valuable and efficacious medicine.

Yours respectfully, AMOS B. CORWINE.

New-York, Nov. 26, 1863.

Messrs. Carreño Brothers & Co.:

Gentlemen: I received a few weeks ago a severe wound on my right arm from a sharp instrument at the machine shop of Hunter, Keller & Co., No. 144 Centre-st., where I am employed; I was dressed by a surgeon, but the inflammation and pain were so great that I could not make any use of my arm. I was then advised by a friend to dress the wound with the celebrated "Tropical Balsam" you prepare; I did so, and am happy to say that shortly after the first application of the Balsam the inflammation and pain subsided, and with a few more dressings I got entirely well and was doing my work again. Respectfully yours,

MICHAEL TOYE, No. 63 Eldridge-st., N. Y.

Gramercy Park House, New-York, Oct. 9, 1863.

Messrs. Carreño Bros. & Co.:

Gentlemen: In reply to your favor of this date, and following the same order in which your questions stand, I have to say: First, I know, both by reputation and from personal experience, the "Tropical Balsam" you prepare. Secondly, having myself, about a month and a half ago, been taken ill with a severe cold, attended with cough, which, owing to my having neglected it at first, was so considerably aggravated that two or three weeks afterward I became quite alarmed about it, I made up my mind to take the "Tropical Balsam," from the confidence I placed in the reputation it enjoys, and in your good faith. I therefore took a teaspoonful of the Balsam in the morning and another in the evening, during one single day; and two days afterward, without having used anything else, and to my surprise, I was perfectly recovered, and ever since I feel quite well. Your most obedient servant RAFAEL DE POMBO.

THE TICKET OF LEAVE MAN.

Know all men by these presents that the bearer hereof, Robert Brierly, was duly tried and convicted at the November Sessions of the Central Criminal Court, held at the Old Bailey in the year of our Lord 1860, of the crime of passing forged bank notes, and was sentenced to imprisonment for the period of four years. And furthermore, the said Robert Brierly having shown by his exemplary conduct, while incarcerated, that he is a fit subject for her Majesty's clemency, it is ordered that he be released on a Ticket of Leave, subject to the following regulations: That it shall be in the power of the authorities to revoke his license, for associating with or harboring notoriously bad characters or convicted thieves; or having in his possession buglarious instruments or having no visible means of support or being again convicted. For either such cases he will be sent back to public works to complete the unexpired term of his original sentence.

MASS ASSEMBLAGE OF THE CITIZENS.

GRAND WAR MEETING.

A public meeting of citizens will be held at the COOPER INSTITUTE on THURSDAY EVENING, the 3d of December, at 7½ o'clock, to respond to the call of the President for ADDITIONAL VOLUNTEERS, and to express the sentiments of the people in regard to the glorious victories recently achieved by the American forces under Gen. Grant.

At no period since the commencement of the rebellion have the people of this City had greater cause for congratulation on the progress of the war, or reasons more cogent to justify a public declaration of their determination to sustain the Union cause. The Volunteer army which has won such undying honor, must be strengthened, and our gallant Volunteers in the field must be encouraged by a prompt and decided response to the call of the President.

The meeting will comprise friends of the Union of all classes and of all parties, and will be addressed by many of the most popular orators of the country, among whom may be named

Judge KELLEY, of Philadelphia,
Gen. SICKLES,
Hon. WM. M. EVARTS,
Hon. CHARLES P. DALY,
Rev. Dr. HITCHCOCK,
Hon. GILBERT DEAN,
Rev. WM. H. BOOLE,
Gen. FRANZ SIGEL,
Rev. E. H. CHAPIN.

A display of fireworks in honor of Gen. Grant, and in compliment to the army of volunteers, will be exhibited on the avenue south of Cooper Institute.

It is expected that Maj.-Gen. Dix will preside, and no efforts will be spared to render this mass assemblage of the people of New-York a demonstration worthy of the Union cause.

The Mayoralty.

The approach of the election shows that, as we have before stated, the real contest for the Mayoralty lies between only two candidates, Mr. Gunther and Mr. Boole. The nomination of Mr. Blunt is considered by his friends as merely complimentary, and voting for him will be a waste of time for any one who desires to save the City from the corrupt management of the ring.

If Tammany and Mozart are representative bodies, why do they not nominate representatives of the people of this City, instead of representatives of a secret ring? Every one knows that the nomination of Boole was a "cut and dried" affair long before the convention met. A funny evidence of this was visible at Tammany Hall on the day when the convention made the nomination. Within two hours after the nomination was made, the front of the hall was ornamented with an immense transparency, which had been long before prepared and kept lying on hand for use, blazoning the candidate's name before the eyes of the unsophisticated citizens who passed by.

Are the Democracy of New-York then in the hands of a ring who may make their banners, order flags and pictures bearing the candidates' names, and arrange everything to suit themselves, only at the last moment going through the form of a packed convention, to publish the names, for the sake of claiming that the voters must sustain them, because they are "regular?" This is incredible and absurd. Mr. Gunther is in every sense more "regular" than Boole. If either is the regular candidate of an open, free Democracy, it is Mr. Gunther. Tammany and Mozart are both "irregular" according to their own repeated declarations concerning each other.

Thus much for the weak claim of Mr. Boole's supporters that he is the regular nominee.

No one needs to be told that we have no personal ends to serve in this contest. We do not want any patronage from the City Government, Mayor, or from any other political source. We desire to see a corrupt management of City affairs changed, and thoroughly changed. Elect Mr. Boole, and the ring divides the spoils, plunders the citizens, and sells offices and appointments for two and probably ten years to come.

Elect Gunther, and Tammany and Mozart have no longer a shadow of claim to represent the Democratic force of New-York, and the ring is broken up. Elect a Republican, and the ring, if they cannot buy him—(Boole was made City Inspector by Mayor Opdyke)—if they cannot buy him, will, two years hence, organize a new combination to wield the Democratic masses for their own personal plunder.

If there were any hope of electing Blunt, the Republicans in New-York might well claim a right to take their own way of reforming the City; but that is conceded to be hopeless. We therefore strongly urge them to sustain Gunther. We repeat that they must recognize the fact that the City is Democratic, and in seeking reform in City politics they should, as wise men, take advantage of any effort among Democrats to effect such reform, and aid the effort by every means in their power.

It is supposed by some, that Boole is very certain to have a majority, and that it is not worth while to vote for Gunther. This is a great mistake. At present Gunther's chances are fully equal to Boole's. It is rumored that the Tammany ring has made a bargain with one of the Republican rings, (of which there are several weakly organizations,) to help them. They are doubtless driven to this by the strong appearance of the Gunther ticket. The bargain is understood, as usual in such cases, to involve money and offices.

On the other hand, at the State election, Tammany sold one of the Mozart candidates, a crime which the Mozart men threaten to visit by selling Boole, who is a Tammany man, and not over well beloved by Mozarters. These are some of the influences at work among others.

Mr. Gunther is very popular, and a determination on the part of honest men of all classes to reform the Democratic control of the City, will elect a Mayor who does not belong to the ring. We trust that all good men will use their influence to accomplish a result so desirable.—Journal of Commerce.

Miscellaneous.

The U. S. steamship Grand Gulf, Commander George M. Ransom, arrived at the Navy-yard this morning, from the blockade off Wilmington. She comes North for some slight repairs which will be quickly finished. The Grand Gulf is a new propeller, of 1,260 tons, purchased from C. & R. Poillon, and carries a very heavy battery. That she is fast, has been proved to the satisfaction of all, as on the 21st inst., while on the passage to Beaufort, N. C., for coal, she overhauled, and with the U. S. transport steamer Fulton, captured the Anglo-rebel steamer Banshee, one of the most celebrated and fastest of the blockade-runners that ply their trade between Nassau and Wilmington. The Fulton had the good fortune to get their boats to the prize first, thereby taking to themselves the credit of capture; but had it not been for the shots fired from the 100-pound Parrott of the Grand Gulf, which caused the Banshee to round to and surrender to the Fulton, she would inevitably have been captured by the Grand Gulf.

The iron-clad Dictator was not launched to-day. She was started some four feet by the aid of several tugs, and stopped. We are informed that the launch will now be postponed to the 10th day of December.

TO THE LOYAL CITIZENS OF THE EIGHTEENTH WARD.

RICHARD WILLIAMSON, Jr.,

Candidate for Alderman of the Fourteenth Aldermanic District.

IS HE A MYTH?

or did he attempt to EVADE THE CONSCRIPTION? HIS NAME IS NOT IN THE DIRECTORY, NEITHER IS IT TO BE FOUND ON THE POLL-LIST of the District in which it is said he resides, and from the affidavits hereto annexed it will be seen that although a young man under thirty-five, HIS NAME WAS NOT ENROLLED as being liable to military service. Is he a non-resident, smuggled into the District for the occasion, or did he ATTEMPT TO DEFRAUD THE GOVERNMENT of his personal service or three hundred dollars by keeping his NAME OFF THE ENROLLMENT LIST? Let the PEOPLE of the District INFORM THEMSELVES ON THE SUBJECT.

City and County of New-York, ss.:

Joseph Flynn, residing at No. 30 1st-st., in the City of New-York, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that he was duly appointed an enrolling officer of the Second Election District of the XVIIIth Ward; that as such enrolling officer he made an enrollment of the persons liable to draft in said district, in the month of June, 1863; that in that capacity he has a distinct recollection of having called at No. 133 5th-av. in the course of making such enrollment, and of having been informed by the lady representing herself as belonging to the house, that there WAS ONLY ONE GENTLEMAN IN THE HOUSE, and that he was an elderly man by the name of Richard Williamson; that this deponent inquired whether there was any other gentleman in the house, and recollects distinctly that the lady informed him that there was NO OTHER PERSON RESIDING IN THE HOUSE LIABLE TO MILITARY DUTY.

VOTERS OF THE TWENTY-FIRST WARD.

We have joined together in the formation of the XXIST WARD CITIZENS' ASSOCIATION, having signed the following pledge, viz.:

"We, the undersigned, residents of the XXIst Ward of the City of New-York, hereby solemnly pledge ourselves to each other to support loyal, honest, faithful and competent men to fill the different offices of this Ward, irrespective of their political opinions or proclivities."

The movement has been started scarcely two weeks; still it has met with almost unanimous approval by the law-abiding citizens of the Ward. Three meetings have been held—the first numbering over one hundred gentlemen, the second numbering nearly three hundred, and the last was attended by about five hundred of the most substantial citizens in the Ward. The time has been too short to reach all the honest and law-abiding citizens of the Ward; hence we take this means of extending to you a hearty and cordial invitation to join us with your votes at the polls at the Charter Election, in support of the following ticket:

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE EIGHTEENTH AND TWENTY-FIRST WARDS.

Among the officers to be elected at the coming municipal election, is a JUSTICE OF THE PEACE. This office is one of great local consequence. The powers of a Police Justice embrace a wide variety of subjects, and are intimately related to the well-being of society. Only a man of irreproachable private life should be selected to discharge the duties of a Police Magistrate. The place should never be a mere reward for political services, unless the people mean to abandon the sure guarantees for their own safety found in a pure and discreet Judiciary. The present incumbent, RICHARD KELLY, Esq., was elected six years ago, and, it is believed, has borne himself in his high office, conscientiously, wisely and industriously. He is one of the oldest residents of this judicial district, and no man enjoys or deserves a greater share of the public confidence. He has dispensed justice without fear, affection, or favor, and the district cannot afford to lose the benefit of his experience, or have him replaced by a stranger to the office, who could not bring to the performance of its duties any greater fitness than Mr. KELLY has shown he possesses.

We confidently present him for the suffrages of our fellow-citizens of the Sixth Judicial District.

DEAFNESS

NOISES IN THE HEAD,

CATARRH CURED
BY
DR. VON EISENBERG,
AT HIS CONSULTING ROOMS,

DEAFNESS AND CATARRH.

No. 23 Forsyth-st., NEW-YORK, Oct. 1, 1863.

Dr. Von Eisenberg:

DEAR SIR: Without recapitulating the numerous benefits I have received through your wonderful cure of the deafness I have labored under many years, the blessings I enjoy will convince the most sceptical.

I have tried many aurists, in Europe and America, without success. I was still deaf as a post.

Three years ago I entered your office, underwent one operation, hoping, yet doubting, I should receive any relief, but was agreeably disappointed in finding the genius of your profession.

The innate skill you possess cured my deafness in one almost painless operation.

The joy I experienced was indescribable; 'twas a new life to me.

My hearing is perfect to this day.

I strongly advise all who are suffering under a difficulty of hearing or total deafness, to consult you immediately as I also personally recommend all who apply to me. The numerous calls trespass on my time and patience, yet, remembering my own long, weary affliction, causes me to pity them.

This is not written to advertise your well-known, unrivaled reputation—that would be puerile; but as a measure of precaution to induce all to call on you at once without troubling me; yet I do not refuse to see any one who comes to me. This is the only way I can show my gratitude.

I also call the attention of those who are suffering from Catarrh which disease I have labored under one year or more.

I experienced difficulty in breathing, langour, heaviness over the eyes, a sense of tightness on the brain, and copious expectorations of a hard and viscid nature. Accompanying this is a "polypus," quite filling the right nostril. On the 25th ult. you operated on both, killing the polypus, which is gradually passing away, and giving me great relief from the Catarrh. One more operation will effectually cure.

This testimonial brings with it my unalloyed and grateful thanks, with but a poor delineation of your wondrous skill as an Aurist.

I am, Sir, yours very gratefully,
EDWARD TEMPLE HARRISON.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7, 1863.

GENTLEMEN: In reply to your inquiry as to the effect produced by the use of "Hoofland's German Bitters" in my family, I have no hesitation whatever in saying that it has been highly beneficial. In one instance, a case of dyspepsia, of about thirteen years' standing, and which had become very distressing, the use of one bottle gave decided relief, the second effected a cure, and the third, it seems, has confirmed the cure, for there has been no symptoms of its return for the last six years.

In my individual use of it I find it to be an unequaled tonic, and sincerely recommend its use to the sufferer.

Truly yours, JACOB BROOM,

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and WILL HAVE a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following recipe: Get ONE BOTTLE HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, and mix with THREE QUARTS OF GOOD BRANDY OR WHISKY and the result will be a preparation that will FAR EXCEL, in medicinal virtues and true excellence, any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will COST MUCH LESS. You will have all the virtues of HOOFLAND'S BITTERS, in connection with a GOOD article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise would be lost.
